Casmir,2013-10-16 Concern with various matters related to humans as they communicate has led to an increase in both research and theorizing during the second half of the 20th century As a matter of fact so many scholars and so many disciplines have become involved in this process that it is virtually impossible to understand and appreciate all that has been accomplished so far This book focuses on one important aspect of human sense making theory building and strives to clarify the thesis that theories do not develop in some sort of social intellectual or cultural vacuum They are necessarily the products of specific times insights and mindsets Theories dealing with the process of communication or communicating are tied to socio cultural value systems and historic factors that influence individuals in ways often inadequately understood by those who use them The process orientation of this book inevitably leads to an emphasis on the perceptions of human beings Thus the focus shifts from the subject or area called communication to the act of communicating Finally this volume offers insight into how the process of human sense making has evolved in those academic fields commonly identified as communication rhetoric speech communication or speech within specific socio cultural settings Proceedings of the 1997 Northeastern Recreation Research Symposium Hans G. Vogel song,1988 Communicating in Groups and Teams Gay Lumsden,Donald L. Lumsden,1997 This book distinguishes itself in two major ways 1 its emphasis on teamwork and leadership skills and 2 its integration of ethics and multicultural diversity throughout all discussion of small group communication This book meets current market needs because of the recent attention given teams in business and industry the increasingly diverse nature of colleges and organizations and growing awareness that colleges should be challenging students to examine their own leadership competence and understand the ethical and social implications of the groups in which they participate

Communicating in Groups Katherine L. Adams,Gloria J. Galanes,2006 Communicating in Groupsoffers a concise step by step introduction to the theory and practice of small group communication and teaches students to develop and apply critical thinking in group problem solving With the firm belief that group participation can be an uplifting and energizing experience authors Kathy Adams and Gloria Galanes give students the tools they will need in order to achieve this outcome Research and theory are presented with a focus on what is important to students understanding their group experiences and making them effective communicators General Technical Report NE ,1980 The Rhetorical Act Karlyn Kohrs Campbell,1996 Designed to improve students performance and their ability to act as sophisticated consumers of rhetoric this highly regarded text treats the rhetorical action as the joint creation of rhetor and audience emphasizing the audiences active participatory role
