Handbook of Research on Competency-Based Education in University Settings Rasmussen, Karen, Northrup, Pamela, Colson, Robin, 2016-10-04 The majority of adult learners are looking to attain their desired academic credentials within the shortest amount of time possible. By implementing competency based programs, learners are accelerated through their designed program or course. The Handbook of Research on Competency Based Education in University Settings is a pivotal reference source for the latest academic research on the use of competency based testing in higher education institutions. Focusing on innovative practices, strategies, and real world scenarios, this book is ideally designed for educators, students, administrators, professionals, and academics interested in emerging developments for competency based education initiatives. Catalog. Supplement Food and Nutrition Information Center (U.S.), 1973. Includes bibliography and indexes subject, personal author, corporate author, title, and media index. Food and Nutrition Information and Educational Materials Center catalog Food and Nutrition Information Center (U.S.), 1976. Instructional Development Paradigms Charles R. Dills, A. J. Romiszowski, 1997. An encyclopedic examination of competing paradigms in the areas of instructional design and development at all levels and in a variety of environments. The 46 treatments feature the analysis of experienced scholars and sometimes the authors of the particular theories under discussion, which include topics in instructional development in its philosophical mode, constructivism, postmodernism, systems approach as a cultural vantage point, and in theory and application, reviewing the effects of technology on class design, the influences of semiotics, the strategic advantages of constructivist instruction versus linear designs, and modeling for applying design strategies from constructivism and cognitive theory to individualizing instruction with adult learners. Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc, Portland, OR. Real-Life Distance Education Anthony A. Piña, Al. P. Mizell, 2014-02-04. This book documents experiences of implementing distance learning to solve real life problems, providing guidance for understanding and analysis. It helps develop analytic and problem solving skills through diverse case studies useful for educational technology, instructional design, learning sciences, and more. Catalog Food and Nutrition Information Center (U.S.), 1974. The Project Manager's Partner Michael Greer, 2001.
