Creativity and Perversion Janine Chasseguet-Smirgel, 1985 This is the best single account of the psychoanalysis of creativity pseudo creativity and the perverse mind The author explores art film and literature to show the relations between true creativity and the artful universe of the pervert

Creativity and Perversion Janine Chasseguet-Smirgel, 1984 Reexamines Freud's concept of perversion discusses narcissism fetishism and aestheticism and considers the psychoanalysis of perverse patients

Relational Psychoanalysis Stephen A. Mitchell, Lewis Aron, Adrienne Harris, 1999 Poetic Acts & New Media Tom O'Connor, 2006 Poetic Acts New Media advances the fields of literary and new media studies by clarifying boundaries between competing genres and media through the creation of a new artistic genre media poetry This aesthetic mode of expression becoming seeks to transform mass culture our codes of communication by self consciously acknowledging how textual audio and or visual signs are constructed according to their simulation and not their representation This study draws heavily upon literary media theories that intersect with Gilles Deleuze's philosophy of Sense as a simulated power of sensory transformations Media poetry becomes a complex power of Sense by blending conventional mass media codes with poetic simulations that provide alternative forms of creating meaning Poetic Acts New Media specifically examines the works of several poets that exemplify this multi sensory approach to printed text poetry especially Langston Hughes Tony Medina David Wojahn John Kinsella David Trinidad It also analyzes several contemporary films that embody the multi modal logic of media poetry David Lynch's Mullholland Drive Cameron Crowe's Vanilla Sky Spike Jonze's Being John Malkovich In addition this study interprets two influential primetime TV shows as exemplars of media poetry Twin Peaks and Buffy the Vampire Slayer All media poetry regardless of genre or medium allows readers viewers to envision reality production as a rewriteable and poetic enterprise that can productively remediate any transparent abstraction or common sense realism

Karmel, George H. Pollock, 1993 This second series of essays is an enriching companion to its ground breaking predecessor In a truly interdisciplinary endeavor the scope of the explorations is extended by a unique international group of scholars working in both music and psychoanalysis Unlike the earlier series this volume consists entirely of original contributions This volume continues the analytic study of individual composers in articles on Bach and Mozart Robert Schumann Satie and Wagner Wagner receives particular attention in studies of universal fantasies which relate to the music the psychological function of the Leitmotif and Freud's familiarity with Wagner hitherto unexplored Other composers whose works are considered are Schubert and Bartok A core issue in each of the two fields resides in the study of affect What is its nature the means and modes of representation How is affect communicated in both the clinical situation and in the performance of music In a central section of the book On Affect and Music writers in both areas address these questions An opening section concerns itself with the problem of method in applied psychoanalysis with specific reference to music the only such treatment in the literature Also included in this portion of the book is a preliminary report of an ongoing study of contemporary composers based upon analytic interviews The volume concludes with a pair of historical essays one of which considers myths of Freud's relationship to music The second is a study of the musicologist in Freud's early circle and the father of Little Hans Max Graf The present volume then is the second in what promises to become a unique series an intellectual venue for an authentically interdisciplinary study of psychoanalysis and music BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Jane Gallop Seminar Papers Jill Julius Matthews, 1994
