Excerpt from A History of American Literature This book attempts to trace within reasonable compass the course of literary development in America and to present the most significant facts regarding American authors and their works It places greatest emphasis on general movements because American literature is first of all important as an expression of national life There are few American writings that require careful analysis and merit intensive study as masterpieces But in a nation where education has from the first been so generally diffused literary attempts of slight artistic merit may reflect not only the obvious changes in national life and ideals but subtler tendencies and aspirations For this reason attention is given not only to the few greater writers but to many others whose works though less important in themselves are sometimes even more significant The plan of the book and the decision what to include and what to exclude have been influenced by the author's experiences with college classes but an attempt has been made to meet the wants of the general reader as well as those of the systematic student In tracing tendencies and movements it has been necessary to adopt a geographical classification of authors and this has sometimes been carried beyond the point where it is significant It is a matter of the greatest importance whether an author represents the Spirit of Puritan New England or the spirit of Cavalier Virginia it is of little importance whether he chooses to write in New Hampshire or in Vermont For convenience however smaller as well as larger groupings have been made on the basis of residence In adopting this plan the author wishes to disclaim any intention of over-emphasizing sectional differences About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      The Cambridge history of American literature ,1917      A Cumulated Index to the Books of ... ,1901      A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased, from the Earliest Accounts to the Latter Half of the Nineteenth Century Samuel Austin Allibone,1891      Cuban American Fiction in English Delores M. Carlito,2005-05-25

Among Hispanic literatures Cuban American fiction is unique because of the Cuban American disposition to regard themselves as exiles rather than immigrants Many Cuban Americans have never been to Cuba and therefore must rely on the memories of those around them to draw conclusions about it These writers have grown up with English as their primary social language and feel more comfortable using English in their writing Until now no listing or bibliography has ever been compiled of Cuban American fiction written in English or its criticism As more works by Cuban Americans are being published every year a resource for such titles has become necessary The body of literature needs a publication that addresses the works of Cuban American authors for those who want an introduction to the subject more general knowledge about the topic or a more solid foundation from which to research it This is the first comprehensive work to address Cuban American fiction originally written in English It contains listings and annotations of all novels anthologies and short story collections written by the first and second generations of Cuban Americans This work also possesses listings and annotations of all secondary works that focus on this fiction Works begin in 1963 with A Wake in Ybor City by Jose Yglesias and run well into the first decade of the 21st century Literature ,1899 Life John Ames Mitchell,1896 The Memorial History of Boston Justin Winsor,1882 Teaching Life Writing Orly Lael Netzer, Amanda Spallacci,2024-07-05 Teaching Life Writing Theory Methodology and Practice combines research in life writing and pedagogy to examine the role of life stories in diverse learning contexts disciplines and global settings While life stories are increasingly integrated into curricula their incorporation raises the risk of reducing them to mere historical evidence Recognizing the importance of teaching life stories in a manner that goes beyond a surface understanding life writing scholars have been consistently exploring innovative pedagogical practices to engage with these stories in ways that encourage dynamic and nuanced conversations about identity agency authenticity memory and truth as well as the potential of these narratives to instigate social change This book assembles contributions from a diverse group of international educators weaving together life writing research critical reflection and concrete pedagogical strategies The chapters are organized around three overarching conversations the materials practices and mediations involved in teaching life writing within the context of contemporary social change The unique perspectives presented in this collection provide educators with valuable insights into effectively incorporating life stories into their teaching practices Featuring works by over a dozen educators the volume interlaces life writing research critical reflection and tangible pedagogical practices The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Auto Biography Studies English Journal ,1920 Introduction to English and American Literature Franklin Verzelius Newton Painter,1899 The Literature of America: From the civil war to the present Arthur Hobson Quinn,Albert Croll Baugh,Will David Howe,1929 Bent's Literary Advertiser and Register of Engravings, Works on the Fine Arts ,1840 The Judge ,1922 Autoethnography in the 21st Century, Volume II Lisa Ortiz-Vilarelle,2024-09-13 Autoethnography in the 21st Century offers interpretive analytic interactive performative experiential and embodied forms of autoethnography from around the globe Volume II Genealogy Memory Media Witness examines hybrid ethnographic life writing genres including genealogical memoir cultural autotheory and family narrative Contributors actively blur the distinction between emic and etic classifications of ethnographic experience to position themselves as both the active bearers

of and critical witnesses of culture to produce and analyze expressive rather than data driven depictions of selfhood and culture that emerge in the spaces between traditionally self effacing scientific methods and literary narrative It features autobiographical and anthropological poetics autotheory and fieldwork grounded in Trinidad Jordan Mexico Italy Australia Canada Scotland Egypt Turkey and the United States The book will be of interest to students and researchers in the fields of critical autoethnography communication cultural and gender studies and other related disciplines The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Life Writing
