

Constructive Living Basics

- These are the questions for reflection:
 - 1. What have I received from _____?
 - 2. What have I given to _____?
 - 3. What troubles and bothers have I caused _____?
- Called "Daily Naikan" practice, these three questions provide a frame for assessing the day
- Answering Naikan's questions and the simple exercise of saying "thank you" starts a new habit of mind.

Constructive Living:

Constructive Living David K. Reynolds, 2021-05-25 Constructive Living is a Western approach to mental health education based in large part on adaptations of two Japanese psychotherapies Morita therapy and Naikan therapy Constructive Living CL presents an educational method of approaching life realistically and thoughtfully The action aspect of CL emphasizes accepting reality including feelings focusing on purposes and doing what needs doing The reflection aspect of CL enables us to understand the present and past more clearly and to live in recognition of the support we receive from the world A Handbook for Constructive Living David K. Reynolds, 2002-04-30 Here in plain language is the definitive guide for taking control of your life and imbuing it with greater meaning and productivity Constructive Living is an action based way of looking at the world that combines good old fashioned straight talk and the celebrated Japanese psychotherapies Morita and Naikan David Reynolds the father of this brilliantly simple and effective therapy shows us how to live thoughtfully and economically to regard our actions as if they were divine rituals and to perform them with the utmost care He contends that contentment is achieved not bestowed attaining peace and satisfaction takes daily practice and learning With user friendly anecdotes practical exercises and a sense of humor he refreshes the experienced student and takes the novice to the beginning laying out the essence of Constructive Living Water, Snow, Water David K. Reynolds, 2013-07-31 You can't be happy all the time You can't feel comfortable all the time You can't have the feelings you want when you want them for as long as you want them Life just doesn't operate like that Maybe you have tried counseling or therapy or diets or meditation or chemicals or some sort of esoteric magic to work on your feelings to fix your life or make it perfect Nothing worked as well as you had hoped Reading this book won't solve your life problems either But it will give you some suggestions that are sensible practical and doable suggestions about how to work on your life Work is the key word here Sitting and talking with someone is not enough Venting your feelings is not enough Putting your mind in some quiet inner place is not enough Working on your life involves moving your body doing your life purposefully and constructively This book offers you concrete assignments for such activity Adapting ideas from Japanese psychotherapies and Eastern thought Constructive Living CL offers a sensible way of living Across cultures and generations CL ideas make sound practical sense Water Snow Water presents the current state of CL in its application to the West Using a variety of materials including essays tales maxims detailed behavioral advice case studies David Reynolds the founder of CL presents fresh perspectives on everything from worrying to love from psychotherapy to death Constructive Living Mixed Reflections David Reynolds, 2013-07-24 Another reflection book by the founder of Constructive Living In this volume are reflections on the writings of Christianity Taoism Confucianism Zen and other philosophers from the perspective of Constructive Living CL The basic works on CL are well known They bring together and extend two Japanese psychotherapies and their underlying philosophies for daily life Here you can compare the simple and practical life suggestions of CL with a variety of other perspectives For more
