Wiring The Writing Center Eric Hobson, 1998-09 One of the first books to address the theory and application of electronics in the writing center Studies in Art Education ,2003 Seeing a Wider View of Composing Wilma Hook Romatz, 2002 Instructor's Manual John Bean, June Johnson, John Ramage, 2003-08 Reforming College

Composition Ray Wallace, Alan Jackson, Susan Lewis Wallace, 2000-07-30 As colleges and universities have responded to the demand of businesses and industries for graduates who can write effectively Composition Studies has gained significance However while new theories and approaches to the teaching of writing have been proposed and implemented many composition courses do not satisfactorily educate their students This volume includes essays by writing specialists who are concerned with their own failure to improve their students writing skills These contributors examine why entering college students still write poorly and why our various attempts to improve such poor writing skills have largely failed They compare the promise of previously touted new methods paradigm shifts and curricular innovations with the reality of little change or improvement they describe what their students can and cannot do in the writing classroom even after 12 years of primary and secondary education and they address what they see as needed reforms in the whole idea of college composition especially for the first year college student American Book Publishing Record ,1998 Reading Art Wendy Harris, 2004 Changing of Knowledge in Composition Lance Massey, Richard C. Gephardt, 2011-07-16 Lance Massey and

Richard Gebhardt offer in this collection many signs that composition again faces a moment of precariousness even as it did in the 1980s the years of the great divorce from literary studies The contours of writing in the university again are rapidly changing making the objects of scholarship in composition again unstable Composition is poised to move not from modern to postmodern but from process to postprocess from a service oriented field to a research driven discipline Some would say we are already there Momentum is building to replace composition and the pedagogical imperative long implied in that term with a writing studies model devoted to the study of composition as a fundamental tool of and force within all areas of human activity Appropriately contributors here use Stephen M North s 1987 book The Making of Knowledge in Composition to frame and background their discussion as they look at both the present state of the field and its potential futures As in North s volume The Changing of Knowledge in Composition describes a body of research and pedagogy brimming with conflicting claims methodologies and politics and with little consensus regarding the proper subjects and modes of inquiry The deep ambivalence within the field itself is evident in this collection Contributors here envision composition both as retaining its commitment to broad based generalized writing instruction and as heading toward content based vertical writing programs in departments and programs of writing studies They both challenge and affirm composition s pedagogical heritage And they sound both sanguine and pessimistic notes about composition s future The Tech-Savvy Booktalker Nancy J.

Keane, Terence W. Cavanaugh, 2009 This book includes simple but powerful ideas and instructions for integrating technology into presentations and using booktalks to launch learning across the curriculum For Grades 6-12 Adapted from back cover

Works and Days, 2000 Talking, Sketching, Moving Patricia A. Dunn, 2001 Patricia Dunn makes the case for a writing pedagogy that draws upon multiple literacies and then gives numerous detailed examples of how that theory can be translated into classroom practice Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006 Books in Print Supplement, 2002 The School World, 1909 Tuned in Bronwyn T. Williams, 2002 Williams shows teachers how they can harness these skills to influence the ways students perceive and engage in writing and reading from the first day of a composition course Chapters in the book are followed by classroom practice interchapters that offer practical suggestions to help teachers use students existing television literacies to achieve a more complex nuanced and critical literacy in print Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1999-12 English in Australia, 2001
