My Journey As I Remember Darrell D. Stark, 2008-04-18 If you take a good look at the cover of the book you will see a picture of a little boy and his sister taken in the early 1920s in the state of Oklahoma That picture represents the beginning of his journey Darrell Starks story begins with the first seventeen years of his life including the hardships that he endured along with the deep sense of perseverance and overwhelming capacity for love that he learned along the way The second part of his journey begins when he enlisted in the United States Army and requested duty in the Philippine Islands He was in the Philippines when World War II began He fought in three of the four major battles in Bataan before it was surrendered by General King At that time Darrell Stark was captured and became a Prisoner of War of the Japanese for three and a half years The third part of his journey begins with his liberation in September of 1945 At that time he returned to the United States to his loving and loved family and struggled to come to terms with a multitude of physical and psychological problems The fourth part of his journey begins when he met his wife and moved to the state of Connecticut where he was a recipient of the kindness and confidence of many wonderful people That helped him to get a start in life despite his war experience As the third picture on the cover will indicate he moved on to acquire a position of responsibility and trust and to maintain a successful and rewarding life

Smith,2009-10-30 In writing my book I tried to the best of my memory and with the help of a lot of people to relate and have a true story about the things that we did as children and adults about growing up and living in a small town in Alabama Even though times were hard then I feel very fortunate to have grown up during that time and in that place I believe that my life has been guided and protected by a Higher Being and I thank God for looking after me and guiding my life I also had some great teachers which I am thankful for knowing Most of our teachers loved us and tried to help when they could to prepare for our future All this gave me confidence to go into adult life and knew that I had my future in my hand and could make my life and that I alone am responsible for my actions I believe that growing up in Roanoke gave me the knowledge and background to have a great life for which I am thankful and I hope for many more good years Things I Remember Sidney Whitman,1916 I Remember Philip Cunliffe-Lister Earl of Swinton,1948
