Asger Jorn:

The Art of Asger Jorn Lars Morell, 2017 The Art of Asger Jorn is the first major work about one of Denmark's most important painters Asger Jorn 1914-1973 It is not a typical biography depicting the outline of his life Rather the book sheds light on Jorn's artistic production Who he was inspired by which artistic movements he was in contact with and not least what his paintings depict This is also the focus of The Art of Asger Jorn in which Lars Morell a Danish historian of ideas analyzes Jorn's paintings The author concludes that Jorn's paintings do not depict anything specific Indeed it is as if Jorn seized them in the midst of transformation where the subject is turning into a new subject Morell finds that the paradoxes and transformations characteristic of the works were influenced by the ever-changing nature of Jorn's own life Asger Jorn was born in Denmark but spent the majority of his artistic life abroad with workshops in both Paris and the Italian city of Albissola famous for its skilled ceramic artisans While abroad he discovered his great connection to the Nordic culture and through his work with ceramics he gained the necessary experience to liberate the colours of his paintings While first and foremost a painter he refined this artform by interacting with a variety of other art forms The Art of Asger Jorn is thus not just a book about a single artist's work but also a book about the mindset of modern art Asger Jorn Asger Jorn,
