No sooner has June settled into her aunt s house in Lower Foxdale than tragedy strikes her retired neighbour Professor Leighton is found dead at the bottom of his staircase The police suspect a tragic accident but June has her doubts Just before his death the professor confided in her about a significant discovery he intended to keep secret As June investigates she uncovers clues pointing to a long lost immensely valuable book But she s not the only one searching a mysterious figure in a monk s robe attacks her before she can make a discovery Has she just come face to face with a killer Together with fellow bookshop owner Pomona and the charming Rufus Whalley June is determined to unravel the mystery no matter the personal danger About the series Wondrous gardens stunning countryside and mystical places are the crowning glories of Somerset When young Londoner June inherits her aunt s idyllic cottage and bookshop she is taken by the county s charms and sees the perfect chance for a fresh start But even in this peaceful corner of southern England dark secrets lie hidden beneath the surface and murderous crimes crop up Fortunately June isn t alone Always ready to help are her new friends Pomona with her love of tarot cards and all things mystical and the knowledgeable antiquarian Rufus Whalley And then there s the rather attractive Detective Sergeant Sean Darcy whose involvement in the cases soon becomes more than just professional About the author Dorothea Stiller fell in love with British mystery novels long before she ever set foot in England Raised in Germany she shared her grandmother s affinity for detective stories and soon began writing her own Her passion for cosy mysteries and her fondness of village life now come together in the Somerset Mysteries series When she s not plotting new adventures for her characters Dorothea enjoys spending time with her husband and two teenage children or exploring English bookshops and gardens At home she can often be found in her small messy garden or curled up on the sofa with her cat a crochet project and a cup of tea in a bone china mug from her ever growing collection      Murder Guide to London Martin Fido,Fido,1993-09 District by district this guide shows how the character of a London borough is reflected in the murders taking place there servant related murder in Belgravia gangland homicide in the East End domestic killings under the guise of middle class respectability in Holloway      Harold Shipman, Mind Set on Murder Carole Peters,2005 In 1998 the graveyards in the market town of Hyde had some unusual early morning visitors Greater Manchester Police were exhuming

the bodies of the elderly patients of a local doctor. The doctor concerned had been their GP for 21 years and had a reputation as the best in the area. But Dr Harold Frederick Shipman was a serial killer. A public inquiry has spent nearly four years investigating Dr Shipman's crimes. They have traced them back more than 30 years and calculated the number of murder he committed to be in the region of 260. As director of ITV's To Kill and Kill Again, Dr Shipman Carole Peters was given unique access to the public inquiry's database and she has also conducted her own investigative research. Cut and will appear in this book for the first time. Transcripts will reveal the doctor's arrogance during police interviews while exclusively obtained prison letters provide a revealing insight into his mind. And with the help of criminal psychologists and those most closely involved in the case, this book examines the clues and provides the answer to the question why. Why Shipman chose to kill and kill again.
