Hawisher, Cynthia L. Selfe, 1995-06 Greatly expanded over past years this volume lists and annotates 2 054 articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions appeared in 1993 It includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter Entries in this present volume include topics with which rhetoricians and compositionists have always concerned themselves The 1993 volume is however the largest CCCC Bibliography so far with many of its titles dealing with the relationship of composition and rhetoric to critical theory gender issues and cultural studies This volume also differs from earlier editions in that it contains a new section on electronic discussion groups or listservs including information on how readers may join the various groups The CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws on a large group of experts in the field Annotations which accompany every entry in this volume describe a publication s contents and are intended to help users determine its usefulness Annotations are brief and are meant to be descriptive not evaluative they explain what an entry is about but leave readers free to judge for themselves the work s merits Myths and Realities Katharine Davies Samway, Denise McKeon, 2007 This second edition updates the myths the authors challenged in the first book as well as addressing new ones that have arisen since and discuss how teachers of ELLs can ensure that their students will fare well in the era of No Child Left Behind book cover Re-mapping Narrative Gian S. Pagnucci, Nicholas Mauriello, 2008 This volume is an exploration of the future of narrative discourse The authors have identified six potential paths drawing patterns of narrative and visual pedagogy and possibility The volume begins with Tales of the Digital Self By telling stories we define ourselves This struggle to understand who and what we are is even more amplified on the Web where identity is almost liquid The authors in the second section picture how stories will be told in the future In Pixels of Heroes and Heroines we reconnect the future of narrative discourse to its literary roots Although it is important to consider the forms narratives will take in the future it is equally important to consider how these stories will be taught This is the issue authors take up in Stories from Wired Desktops Chapters move into the realm of the political in Views of Techno Identity and Virtual Spaces The volume concludes with the chapters in Critical Reflections on Project UNLOC Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003
