Bauman, Elias and Latour on Modernity and Its Alternatives

Sandro Segre,2020-03-31 Bauman Elias and Latour on Modernity and Its Alternatives provides a comparison between the conceptions of modernity and its alternatives in the works of Bauman Elias and Latour Their work and research are linked to their distinct views on modernity and its alternatives For Bauman the rationality effectiveness and impersonality that characterize present day bureaucratic apparatuses are the distinguishing features of modernity Its post modern or liquid alternative has none of these traits For Elias modernity has two different and contrasting faces that of civilization and barbarity Elias conceives of civilization as a process connoted by self control and pacification which prevail as a consequence of the restraint which honor and morality exert on individuals By contrast the breakdown of civilization involves barbarity For Latour modernity if defined by a separation between society and nature or humans and non humans has never existed By virtue of their intimate association humans and non humans have formed hybrids whose proliferation is the hallmark of our age Modernity therefore has never prevailed Alternatives to hybrids are in the current age failed hybrids The set of alternatives is then as follows modernity vs post modernity Bauman civilization vs barbarity Elias and successful vs unsuccessful hybrids Latour

The American Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1926 Readers' Guide to Periodical

Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie,1929 An author subject index to selected general interest periodicals of reference value in libraries American Monthly Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1927 Capitlism and its Alternatives ,1933 Democratic Values, Political Structures, and Alternative Politics in Greater China David Zweig,2002 This study addresses the relationship among popular attitudes toward democracy a state s political structures parties elections and the government bodies to which candidates in these societies are elected and the ways in which people participate in politics It argues that high levels of popular democratic consciousness and strong demands for participation in the absence of legitimate democratic institutions lead citizens to resort to nonformal political strategies including civil disobedience to meet their needs
