H.G. Wells: Another Kind of Life Michael Sherborne, 2011-05-01 An unlikely lothario one of the most successful writers of his time a figure at the heart of the age's political and artistic debates H G Wells life is a great story in its own right When H G Wells left school in 1880 at 13 he seemed destined for obscurity yet he defied expectations becoming one of the most famous writers in the world He wrote classic science fiction tales such as The Time Machine The Invisible Man and The War of the Worlds reinvented the Dickensian novel in Kipps and The History of Mr Polly pioneered postmodernism in experimental fiction and harangued his contemporaries in polemics which included two bestselling histories of the world He brought equal energy to his outrageously promiscuous love life a series of affairs embraced distinguished authors such as Dorothy Richardson and Rebecca West the gun toting travel writer Odette Keun and Russian spy Moura Budberg Until his death in 1946 Wells had artistic and ideological confrontations with everyone from Henry James to George Orwell from Churchill to Stalin He remains a controversial figure attacked by some as a philistine sexist and racist praised by others as a great writer a prophet of globalization and a pioneer of human rights Setting the record straight this authoritative biography is the first full scale account to include material from the long suppressed skeleton correspondence with his mistresses and illegitimate daughter

The Breath of Life John Burroughs, 1915 This is a pre 1923 historical reproduction that was curated for quality Quality assurance was conducted on each of these books in an attempt to remove books with imperfections introduced by the digitization process Though we have made best efforts the books may have occasional errors that do not impede the reading experience We believe this work is culturally important and have elected to bring the book back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide

Another Kind of Life Alona Pardo, 2018-05-08 Filled with compelling images from revered photographers of the past and present this book sheds light on marginalized communities who have traditionally shied away from the camera At a time when individual rights are being contested and when those on the fringes of society feel deeply threatened this powerful photographic compilation delivers a message of humanity and inclusiveness that transcends geopolitical and cultural boundaries Works by critically acclaimed photographers including Bruce Davidson Paz Errazuriz Jim Goldberg Danny Lyon Mary Ellen Mark Boris Mikhailov Daido Moriyama and Dayanita Singh cast a compassionate unflinching eye on the worlds inhabited by transsexuals hookers hustlers bikers junkies circus performers gang members survivalists petty criminals and others who live in the shadows on the streets and out of the public eye Grouped by photographer and ranging in genre from portraiture to photojournalism these images were selected for their authentic and humane perspective as well as for their artistic brilliance An important testament to photography's power to both expose injustice and provide affirmation for those outside the norm this collection bears witness to the ways social attitudes change across time and space and how visual representation can promote understanding and dialogue
