Defining Literary Criticism:

Defining Literary Criticism Carol Atherton, 2005-09-27 Outlining the controversies that have surrounded the academic discipline of English Literature since its institutionalization in the late nineteenth century this important book draws on a range of archival sources It addresses issues that are central to the identity of academic English how the subject came into existence and what makes it a specialist discipline of knowledge in a manner that illuminates many of the crises that have affected the development of modern English studies Atherton also addresses contemporary arguments about the teaching of literary criticism including an examination of the reforms to A Level literature Reconstructing Criticism Philip Smallwood, 2003 This study aims to bring the modern theory of literary criticism and Pope's Essay on Criticism of 1711 into a more productive and interesting association than critical historical structures have generally allowed Smallwood marks out in current terms and in depth the specialized theoretical and aesthetic problem of defining criticism He recognizes that criticism no more than literature or art cannot be finally codified or defined but insists on the need for clarity in the exposition of criticism's purposes and a fuller consciousness of a common community of practice available to audiences outside the academic fold Affirming the unfailing currency and utility of the term criticism as new languages have taken over the critical domain or have sought to replace or abolish literature Smallwood distinguishes between the normative definitions that are everywhere apparent in modern theory of criticism and the advantages to conceptual comprehension achieved by Pope's poetic idea of criticism in the Essay Defining the New Testament Logia on Divorce and Remarriage in a Pluralistic Context Yordan Kalev Zhekov, 2009-01-01 Christian marriage is a permanent union which requires the commitment of both spouses for its maintenance through fulfillment of its stipulations The failure of the fulfillment of the latter provides legitimate grounds for divorce and remarriage of the innocent party This work employs a fourfold approach for the development of NT ethical argumentation based on Richard B Hays Moral Vision of the New Testament The author establishes the proper contextual grounds for the NT study through formulation of the Old Testament perspective on marriage as covenant The relevant NT passages are examined through historical critical and narrative critical methods A critical study of the main Christian traditions leads to an ecumenical formulation of the theological conclusions Pragmatic implementation of the thesis follows an examination of the contemporary pluralistic context and applications in both Christian communities and the larger society within its legislative system The New Cambridge Companion to Biblical Interpretation Ian Boxall, Bradley C. Gregory, 2022-12-22 This Cambridge Companion offers an up to date and accessible guide to the fast changing discipline of biblical studies Written by scholars from diverse backgrounds and religious commitments many of whom are pioneers in their respective fields the volume covers a range of contemporary scholarly methods and interpretive frameworks The volume reflects the diversity and globalized character of biblical interpretation in which neat boundaries between author focused text focused and reader focused approaches are blurred The significant space devoted to the reception of the Bible in art literature liturgy and religious practice also blurs the distinction between professional and popular biblical interpretation The volume provides an ideal introduction to the various ways that scholars are currently interpreting the Bible It offers both beginning and advanced students an understanding of the state of biblical interpretation and how to explore each topic in greater depth The Theory of Literary Criticism John M.

Characterization in the Sermon on the Mount Arren Bennet Lawrence,2017-03-24 The Sermon on the Mount contains many comparisons In this book the functions of these comparisons are studied by the methodology called comparative characterization Characterization is the way a character is characterized in a narrative Comparative characterization is the characterization of a character using comparisons In comparative characterization another character is used as a foil to bring out a characteristic trait of a concerned character Jesus characterized the ideal disciple in the Sermon on the Mount with many descriptions and imperatives To characterize the ideal disciple Jesus used many comparisons and highlighted the characteristic features that embody the ideal disciple The many comparisons used in the Sermon on the Mount are identified in this study through comparative characterization In addition the teleological purpose of the comparisons which is to play as foil to the characterization of the ideal disciple is identified and highlighted Thus this study identifies Jesus characterization of the ideal disciple and his complex portrayal of the ideal disciple with the many uses of comparisons in the descriptions and imperatives of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount     Towards A Definition of Topos Lynette Hunter,1991-06-18 Allegories rhetoric imagery commonplaces cliches and archetypes are discussed in connection with the literary work of authors such as Montaigne Shakespeare Jules Verne Emile Zola and James Joyce     The Comedian as Critic Matthew Wright,2012-05-24 The first comprehensive study of the relationship between Greek comedy and ancient literary criticism offering an original and sophisticated reading of the works of Old Comedy     Summary of the Dissertation[s] Submitted in Partial Satisfaction of the Requirements for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy California.
