Bacon's Essays Francis Bacon, Edwin A. Abbott, 1893      Bacon's Essays With Introduction, Notes, and Index, Vol. 1 of 2 Edwin An; Abbott, 2015-06-24 Excerpt from Bacon's Essays With Introduction Notes and Index Vol 1 of 2 The object of the present edition of Bacon's Essays is to illustrate them as far as possible not merely by disconnected notes but by a continuous Introduction bringing to bear upon the Essays such knowledge of Bacon's thoughts as can be derived from his life and works The basis of this Introduction is of course the edition of Bacon's Works issued by Mr Ellis and Mr Spedding and the Letters and Life recently completed by Mr Spedding Allusions and textual difficulties are explained by notes but the writer's experience while reading the Essays with a class of advanced pupils led him to the conviction that for the proper understanding of the Essays more is wanted than mere annotation however accurate and judicious Bacon's Essays can hardly be understood without reference to Bacon's life The text adopted is generally that of the accurate and scholar-like edition of Mr Aldis Wright but I have ventured to depart from his example in the matter of spelling and punctuation About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Numbers marked refer to the pages in the second vtux ESSAYS What is Truth said jesting Pilate and would not stay for an answer Certainly there be that delight in giddiness and count it a bondage to fix a belief affecting free will in thinking as well as in acting And though the sects of philosophers of that kind be gone yet there 5 remain certain discoursing wits which are of the same veins though there be not so much blood in them as was in those of the ancients But it is not only the difficulty and labour which men take in finding out of truth nor again that when it is found it imposeth upon 10 men's thoughts that doth bring lies in favour but a natural though corrupt love of the lie itself One of the later school of the Grecians examineth the matter and is at a stand to think what should be in it that men should love lies where neither they make for pleasure 15 as with poets nor with advantage as with the merchant but for the lie's sake But I cannot tell this same truth Is a naked and open daylight that doth not show the masques and mummeries and triumphs of the world half so stately and daintily as candle lights Truth may 20 perhaps come to the price of a pearl that sheweth best by day but it will not rise to the price of a diamond or carbuncle that sheweth best in varied lights A mixture of a lie doth ever add pleasure Doth any man doubt 1s that if there were taken out of men's minds vain opinions flattering hopes false valuations imaginations as one would and the like but it would leave the minds of a number of men poor shrunken things full of melancholy and indisposition and unpleasing to themselves One 30 of the fathers in great severity called poesy vinum
