African Capitalists In African Development:

African Capitalists in African Development Bruce J. Berman, Colin Leys, 2022 Breaking new ground in the study of a key dimension of African development the authors explore the variations in the technical and political capacities of the continent's diverse indigenous entrepreneur classes

The Development of Capitalism in Africa John Sender, Sheila Smith, 2013-05-13 First published in 1986 this work challenges underdevelopment analyses of Africa's past experiences and future prospects and builds upon a very wide range of recent historical research to argue that the impact of Capitalism has resulted in economic progress and significant improvements in living standards In marked contrast to the dependency approach they propose that the important political and economic differences between the experiences of developing countries should be stressed and analysed The argument is supported by a detailed look at the emergence since 1900 of capitalist social relations of production in nine different countries

Africapitalism Uwafiokun Idemudia, Kenneth Amaeshi, 2019-04-01 Using theory empirical research and case studies this book explores the changing nature of business in Africa and how businesses can actively contribute to the development of Africa It uses and critically analyses the concept of Africapitalism a management philosophy and movement which seeks to blend the best of African values and Western management theories as a basis for sustainable development in Africa to understand the subtle factors that underpin business decisions in Africa The collection of chapters in this book are organized around actors issues and reflections They collectively present an account of Africapitalism albeit from different perspectives and on different issues and open up a new space for rethinking business and society relations in Africa from an Africapitalism perspective Crucial is the critical engagement with both the discourse and practice of Africapitalism and its implications for sustainable development It is anticipated that the challenges and opportunities highlighted by the book would be embraced by researchers policy makers and practitioners in the broad area of business and society in Africa This multidisciplinary book will be valuable reading for advanced students researchers and policymakers looking at business in society corporate social responsibility sustainable business international business and African development

Emergence of African Capitalism John Iliffe, 2015-12-31

Modernization and the Crisis of Development in Africa Jeremiah I. Dibua, 2006 In this book Jeremiah I Dibua challenges prevailing notions of Africa's development crisis by drawing attention to the role of modernization as a way of understanding the nature and dynamics of the crisis and how to overcome the problem of underdevelopment

African Development and the Marginalisation of Domestic Capitalists Prithish Behuria, 2019 The revival of industrial policy discussions has operated in parallel to reports of increasing domestic wealth accumulation across the African continent Regional and continent wide industrialisation has begun to be rhetorically linked to discussions of regional common markets and through the African Continental Free Trade Area Yet there is barely any mention of integrating African capital into the African industrial policy agenda Where such discussions have appeared they have emerged through the Africapitalism narrative which ignores the role of the state and politics in supporting and sustaining domestic business groups. Instead the re-imagining of industrial policy on the continent relies on foreign investors, particularly the relocation of Chinese industry to various parts of the continent. This paper has two core objectives. The first is to explain why the study of African capitalists, popular in the 1980s and 1990s, has remained relatively dormant since then. Dominant narratives through neopatrimonialism and dependency inspired arguments have been pessimistic about the potential of African capitalists to deliver structural transformation. Gradually these narratives, alongside intellectual trends within mainstream social science and African studies, have discouraged the study of politics of state-business relations in Africa. Yet African capitalists have become increasingly prominent in popular culture. Many of the wealthiest and most prominent capitalists have emerged through owning diversified business groups across the continent. This paper argues that more attention should be dedicated to the study of the politics of the emergence and sustenance of African diversified business groups (DBGs). To achieve this goal, a fluid categorisation of DBGs is introduced, building on Ben Ross Schneider's previous work. By examining three country case studies (Rwanda, Kenya, and Tanzania), this paper highlights how a range of DBGs are emerging across three very different political contexts.

African Capitalism E. Wayne Nafziger, 1977. Monograph discussing the role of entrepreneurship in the economic development of Nigeria, covering labour demand and labour supply of managers and entrepreneurs in relation to size of enterprise, the extent of indigenization, the influence of educational level on entrepreneurial efficiency, etc. presents an economic policy of Nigerian business and includes case studies based on the shoe and leather industry. Bibliography pp. 265 to 284. Graph, map, photographs, references, and statistical tables. African Development in a Comparative Perspective, 2000.

African Capitalism Paul T. Kennedy, Paul M. Kennedy, 1988-09-30. This 1988 book provides an analysis of African capitalism which offers a positive view of its role.

African Development and the Marginalisation of Domestic Capitalists, 2019. Kenyan Capitalists, the State, and Development David Himbara, 1994. The African Bourgeoisie Paul M. Lubeck, 1987. Evaluates the role of indigenous capitalism and capitalists in Black Africa's most successful capitalist states (Nigeria, Kenya, and the Ivory Coast).

Islam, Ethics, Revolt Donald R. Wehrs, 2008-01-01. Rereading works by Camara Laye, Cheikh Hamidou Kane, Rachid Boudjedra, Yambo Ouologuem, Ahmadou Kourouma, Mariama B, and Assia Djebar, this study explores the struggle to craft decolonized Islamic identities within sub-Saharan and North African societies. Linking the politics of these narratives to an Islamic piety rooted in ethical revolt against egotism and idolatry, the study considers the agency of non-Western values in postcolonial literature and the relationship between novelistic and prophetic discursive authority.

Capitalist Development in an African Economy Jonathan Silas Zwingina, 1992. Contending Issues in African Development Obioma M. Iheduru, 2001-02-28. Annotation. Examines the issues and dynamics central to Africa's problematic development and situates those issues within the continent's unique cultural, political, economic, and social milieu.

Globalization, Capitalism, Liberal Democracy and the Search for New Development Paradigms in Africa Tukumbi

Lumumba-Kasongo,2001      The International Journal of African Historical Studies ,1995      Africa and the Global System of Capital Accumulation Emmanuel O Oritsejafor,Allan D. Cooper,2021-04-17 Africa and the Global System of Capital Accumulation offers a groundbreaking analysis of the strategic role Africa plays in the global capitalist economy The exploitation of Africa s rich resources as well as its labor make it possible for major world powers to sustain their authority over their own middle class populations while rewarding African collaborators in leadership positions for subjecting their populations into poverty and desperation Middle class obsessions such as computers mobile phones cars and the petroleum that fuels them diamonds chocolate all of these products require African resources that are typically obtained by child or slave labor that helps to generate billionaires out of foreign investors while impoverishing most Africans Oritsejafor and Cooper demonstrate that primitive accumulation believed by both Adam Smith and Karl Marx to be a process that precedes capitalism is actually an integral part of capitalism They also validate the thesis that capitalism incorporates racism as an organizing tool for the exploitation of labor in Africa and on a global scale Case studies are presented on Nigeria Cote d Ivoire Ghana Liberia Congo Tanzania Somalia Angola Namibia Sao Tome and Principe and South Sudan There are also chapters analyzing the interests of Russia and China in Africa This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African politics development and economics      Ivoirien Capitalism John Rapley,1993 Though studies of capitalism in Africa traditionally focus on the activities of foreign investment in Cote d Ivoire capitalist development has been largely the work of a domestic class of entrepreneurs      Class, Elite, and Community in African Development Alpheus Manghezi,1976 Collection of essays on modernization and community development in Africa discusses the relationship between social class elites social conflicts and underdevelopment and presents a critical analysis of conservative social theory social sciences and methodology Bibliography pp 117 and 118 and references
