African Development Indicators 2002 Ziad Badr, Jose Delcour, Tariqul Khan, Tosi Mpanu-Mpanu, Rose Mungai, Joan Pandit, 2002-01-01 This volume presents more than 500 indicators for 53 African countries with which to monitor development programmes and aid flows in the region The data covers the period 1980 2000 and has been derived mainly from national statistical services in Africa supplemented by information from international agencies and World Bank staff estimates where available The book is divided into 15 chapters which cover selected background data national accounts prices and exchange rates money and banking external sector issues external debt and related flows government finance agriculture power communications and transportation the privatisation of public enterprises labour force and employment aid flows social indicators environmental indicators and the Heavily Indebted Poor Countries HIPC Initiative World Bank Africa Database 2002 World Bank, 2002 There is a more recent edition of this title available This is an annual publication the new edition is available for ordering or pre ordering If this edition is still available and you would like to order it please click Add to Cart above If you would like to order or see more information about the new edition for this title please click on the following link ADI 2003 Africa Development Indicators 2007 World Bank, 2008 The world s demand for food is expected to double within the next 50 years while the natural resources that sustain agriculture will become increasingly scarce degraded and vulnerable to the effects of climate change In many poor countries agriculture accounts for at least 40 percent of GDP and 80 percent of employment At the same time about 70 percent of the world s poor live in rural areas and most depend on agriculture for their livelihoods World Development Report 2008 seeks to assess where when and how agriculture can be an effective instrument for economic development especially development that favors the poor It examines several broad questions How has agriculture changed in developing countries in the past 20 years What are the important new challenges and opportunities for agriculture Which new sources of agricultural growth can be captured cost effectively in particular in poor countries with large agricultural sectors as in Africa How can agricultural growth be made more effective for poverty reduction How can governments facilitate the transition of large populations out of agriculture without simply transferring the burden of rural poverty to urban areas How can the natural resource endowment for agriculture be protected How can agriculture s negative environmental effects be contained This year s report marks the 30th year the World Bank has been publishing the World Development Report African Development Indicators 2004, 2004-01-01 This volume contains more than 500 economic social and environmental data indicators from a wide variety of sources for 53 African countries and five regional country groups in order to present a broad picture of development across the continent The data covers the period 1980 2002 and is grouped into 16 chapters which cover selected background data national accounts prices and exchange rates money and banking external sector issues external debt and related flows government finance agriculture power communications and transportation privatisation of public enterprises labour force and employment aid flows social indicators environmental indicators the Heavily Indebted Poor Countries HIPC initiative and household welfare Institutions and Development in Africa John Mukum Mbaku,2004 A significant contribution to the debate on poverty alleviation in Africa Professor Mbaku offers practical policies for economic growth He argues that the most important contributor to poverty and deprivation in Africa is the absence of institutional structures that enhance indigenous entrepreneurship and wealth creation He explains that these are so vital that living standards will continue to deteriorate unless these building blocks are put in place Africa Development Indicators 2007 World Bank,2008 Africa Development Indicators 2006 provides the most detailed collection of data on Africa available in one volume It contains about 450 macroeconomic sectoral and social indicators covering 53 African countries Additional data may be found on the companion CD ROM World Bank Africa Database 2006 covering about 1 200 indicators from 1965 to 2004 Book Jacket AIDS in Africa Nana Poku,2005 Across Africa HIV AIDS is slowly killing millions of people in the prime of their lives weakening state structures deepening poverty and reversing the gains in life expectancy achieved over the past century Although many who study the dynamics of Africas AIDS crisis accept that to some degree its entrenchment is a socially produced phenomenon few have examined how the course and intensity of the epidemic have been affected by the continents ubiquitous poverty the impact of the pervasive structural adjustment programmes or Africas marginalization in the process of globalization until now This book explores the socio economic context of Africas vulnerability to HIV AIDS as well as assessing the politics of domestic and global response Using primary and secondary data it charts the power relations driving Africas HIV AIDS epidemic frustrating the possibility of alleviation and recovery as well as working to relegate the continent to a bleak and vulnerable future In this sense the book marks a radical departure by providing a comprehensive analysis of Africas vulnerability to AIDS and the challenges confronting policy makers as they seek to reverse its escalating prevalence on the continent AIDS in Africa is an immensely valuable introduction to the greatest pandemic facing the world today

Improving Health, Nutrition, and Population Outcomes in Sub-Saharan Africa ,2005 Annotation This book takes an in depth look at health nutrition and population challenges faced by Sub Sharan Africa particularly how disease malnutrition and high fertility affect poverty reduction African Development Report 2004 African Development Bank,2004 The African Development Report 2004 is the sixteenth annual survey of economic and social progress in Africa The Report provides comprehensive analysis of the State of the African Economy examining development policy issues affecting the economic prospects of the continent Rethinking Development Economics Ha-Joon Chang,2003 Impressive provides a very good compendium of what are usually classified as heterodox development economics an excellent volume Journal of International Development This important new collection tackles the failure of neoliberal reform to generate longterm growth and reduce poverty in many developing and transition economies As dramatically demonstrated in the collapse of the WTO s Seattle talks there is increasing dissatisfaction in both developing and developed countries with the emerging neoliberal global economic order The resignations of Joseph Stiglitz and Ravi Kanbur from the World Bank emphasize that this disillusionment with the orthodoxy now exists at the very heart of the establishment Yet the increasing demand for an alternative to this orthodoxy is not being met Over the last few decades the older generation of development economists have been edged out of most major universities particularly in the USA The situation in most developing countries is even worse although there is more demand for alternatives to orthodox development economics these countries have even less capability to generate such alternatives Rethinking Development Economics is intended to fill this gap It addresses key issues in development economics ranging from macroeconomics finance and governance to trade industry agriculture and poverty Bringing together some of the foremost names in the field this comprehensive and timely collection constitutes a critical staging post in the future of development economics

Africa Development, 2008 A quarterly journal of the Council for the Development of Economic and Social Research in Africa Revue trimestrielle du conseil pour le développement de la recherche économique et sociale en Afrique

Africa Development Indicators World Bank, 2006 This annual publication contains a broad range of macroeconomic sectoral and social indicators for 53 African countries which give a detailed picture of development in the region This year's report has been revised in order to better analyse and monitor the challenges and transformations across the continent It contains i an essay which reviews the performance of countries and donors during 2005 and explores the challenges involved in meeting the Millennium Development Goals by 2015 ii data tables with selected indicators for the years from 1980 to 2004 covering a range of issues including national accounts private sector development trade infrastructure including transportation energy ICT water and sanitation education health including malarial and HIV AIDS rates agriculture and rural development migration and population and household survey data and iii a World Bank Africa Database 2006 CD ROM with 1 200 macroeconomic sectoral and human development indicators with time series of many going back to 1965 together with country tables and tools for query display and Excel based executive summary briefings

Growth and Development in Africa Diery Seck, Dipo T. Busari, 2009 As the collective effort of leading African social science research and academic institutions that seek to advance the current debate this volume includes scholarly studies on diverse and complementary development challenges facing Africa It proposes a research based African perspective on development issues ranging from sectoral and macroeconomic policy to governance gender and globalization A variety of approaches both quantitative and qualitative are used to investigate the link between economic growth and development with the intended result of formulating a new development paradigm for the region The volume's scope offers an accurate indication of the understanding of development by African knowledge institutions in the twenty first century it also provides a set of cohesive solutions No doubt this volume will be of considerable value to public policy managers and analysts as well as to practitioners and scholars
