The Art of the American Musical Jackson R. Bryer, Richard Allan Davison, 2005 Bringing together exclusive and previously unpublished interviews with nineteen leading composers lyricists librettists directors choreographers and producers from the mid 1900s to the present this book details the careers of the individuals who shaped this popular performance art during its most prolific period The interviewees discuss their roles in productions ranging from On the Town 1944 and Finian's Rainbow 1947 to The Producers 2001 and Bounce 2003 Readers are taken onto the stage into the rehearsals and behind the scenes The nuts and bolts the alchemy and the occasional agonies of the collaborative process are all explored In their discussions the artists detail their engagements with other creative forces including such major talents as Leonard Bernstein Jerome Robbins Bob Fosse Liza Minnelli Judy Garland Barbra Streisand Jule Styne Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein Alan Jay Lerner Zero Mostel and Gwen Verdon They speak candidly about their own work and that of their peers their successes and failures the creative process and how a show progresses from its conception through rehearsals and tryouts to opening night Taken together these interviews give fresh insight into what Oscar Hammerstein called a nightly miracle The creation of the American musical

The Making of My Fair Lady Keith Garebian, 1998 The common lament was Broadway will never be the same when My Fair Lady finally ended its stellar run the night of Sunday September 30 1962 Millions of people had seen the show over six years and had helped break box office records even though Rex Harrison Julie Andrews Stanley Holloway and Robert Coote did not stay with the cast throughout the six year run My Fair Lady used the substance and wit of George Bernard Shaw to add a new dimension to the Broadway libretto

The Making of Gypsy Keith Garebian, 1998 The difficulty for a modern star in Gypsy today is the competition with a ghost Ethel Merman's to be exact It is no longer a case of making the role Mama Rose credible in all her volcano force anomalies of making her seem crazy yet funny pitiful and savage sinner and sinned against She is downright interesting in her own right and in Arthur Laurent's writing only a sub par actress would fail to capitalize on that interest

Historians on Hamilton Renee C. Romano, Claire Bond Potter, 2018-05-09 America has gone Hamilton crazy Lin Manuel Miranda's Tony winning musical has spawned sold out performances a triple platinum cast album and a score so catchy that it is being used to teach U S history in classrooms across the country But just how historically accurate is Hamilton And how is the show itself making history Historians on Hamilton brings together a collection of top scholars to explain the Hamilton phenomenon and explore what it might mean for our understanding of America's history The contributors examine what the musical got right what it got wrong and why it matters Does Hamilton's hip hop take on the Founding Fathers misrepresent our nation's past or does it offer a bold positive vision for our nation's future Can a musical so unabashedly contemporary and deliberately anachronistic still communicate historical truths about American culture and politics And is Hamilton as revolutionary as its creators and many commentators claim Perfect for students teachers theatre fans hip hop heads and history buffs alike these short and lively essays examine why Hamilton became an Obama era sensation and consider its continued relevance in the age of Trump Whether you are a fan or a skeptic you will come away from this collection with a new appreciation for the meaning and importance of the Hamilton phenomenon

A Structural Analysis of the American Musical Theatre Between 1955 and 1965 Barbara Means Fraser, 1982 The purpose of this study was to select a period in American history 1955 1965 and representative American musicals from the same period to compare the underlying values communicated through the American musical with the values within the American society The ten year period was divided into three eras 1955 1959 The Eisenhower Years 1960 1962 The Kennedy Years and 1963 1965 a new Romanticism following the assassination of John Kennedy Accompanying each of these eras was a randomly selected sample of American musicals and a selected sample of the longest running American musical of each year The random sample between 1955 and 1965 includes Once Upon a Mattress The Music Man Flower Drum Song Li l Abner and West Side Story between 1960 and 1962 includes Do Re Mi Mr President The Unsinkable Molly Brown Bye Bye Birdie and How to Succeed in Business without Really Trying and between 1963 and 1965 includes Skyscraper Here s Love 110 in the Shade Man of La Mancha and Do I Hear a Waltz The selected sample includes the following musicals Damn Yankees My Fair Lady The Music Man Flower Drum Song The Sound of Music The Fantasticks How to Succeed in Business without Really Trying A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum Fiddler on the Roof and Man of La Mancha A structural analysis of libretti and original Broadway or Off Broadway cast s recordings revealed the values of the musical theatre world for comparison with the American values isolated by a collection of images events and themes from popular and historical documents This study concluded that musicals are reflective of the American values of its era This information and the process for discovering it should be useful to all producing artists of American musicals who may choose to adapt characters when negative values are being communicated or to emphasize positive values of the past This study should help to make theatre artists realize that all dramatic creations communicate values therefore artists and producers must be accountable for the values of the art they choose to practice
