

Draw CONCLUSIONS

Readers draw conclusions by piecing together inferences made while reading to come up with a bigger understanding.

- Readers use their background knowledge, along with clues from the text to make many inferences while reading.
- They take multiple clues and inferences made while reading in order to draw conclusions.
- Conclusions that readers can come to are judgements about the characters, setting, or events in a story.

EXAMPLE:

I think Ani is caring when she brings her friend work she missed while she was sick.

Inferences

I think Ani is trustworthy when she keeps Leslie's secret.

My guess is that if any of Ani's friends needed her she would be there to help.

Conclusion

These events and inferences make me think Ani must be a really loyal and
