Benjamin Bolden, Neryl Jeanneret, 2022-01-01 This book stems from the 2019 meeting of the UNESCO UNITWIN international network for Arts Education Research for Cultural Diversity and Sustainable Development. It presents scholarly international perspectives on issues surrounding arts education and sustainability that addresses the following questions: What value can the arts add to the education of citizens of the 21st century? What are the challenges and ways forward to realize the potential of arts education in diverse contexts? The book discusses empirical research and exemplary practices in the arts and arts education around the world, presenting sound theoretical and methodological frames and approaches. It identifies policy implications at national, regional, and global levels that cut across social, economic, environmental, and cultural dimensions of sustainable development. Indianapolis Monthly, 1998-07 Indianapolis Monthly is the Circle City's essential chronicle and guide, an indispensable authority on what's new and what's news.
