Engaging Bodies Ann Cooper Albright, 2013-12-03 Winner of the Selma Jeanne Cohen Prize in Dance Aesthetics 2014 For twenty five years Ann Cooper Albright has been exploring the intersection of cultural representation and somatic identity in dance For Albright dancing is a physical inquiry a way of experiencing and participating in the world and her writing reflects an interdisciplinary approach to seeing and thinking about dance In her engagement as both a dancer and a scholar Albright draws on her kinesthetic sensibilities as well as her intellectual knowledge to articulate how movement creates meaning Throughout Engaging Bodies movement and ideas lean on one another to produce a critical theory anchored in the material reality of dancing bodies This blend of cultural theory and personal circumstance will be useful and inspiring for emerging scholars and dancers looking for a model of writing about dance that thrives on the interconnectedness of watching and doing gesture and thought Hardcover is un jacketed

Choreographing Difference Ann Cooper Albright,2010-06-01 The choreographies of Bill T Jones Cleveland Ballet Dancing Wheels Zab Maboungou David Dorfman Marie Chouinard Jawole Willa Jo Zollar and others have helped establish dance as a crucial discourse of the 90s These dancers Ann Cooper Albright argues are asking the audience to see the body as a source of cultural identity a physical presence that moves with and through its gendered racial and social meanings Through her articulate and nuanced analysis of contemporary choreography Albright shows how the dancing body shifts conventions of representation and provides a critical example of the dialectical relationship between cultures and the bodies that inhabit them As a dancer feminist and philosopher Albright turns to the material experience of bodies not just the body as a figure or metaphor to understand how cultural representation becomes embedded in the body In arguing for the intelligence of bodies Choreographing Difference is itself a testimonial giving voice to some important political moral and artistic questions of our time Ebook Edition Note All images have been redacted
