Beyond Busing:

Beyond Busing Paul R. Dimond, 2009-01-20 A compelling insider's account of the fight for educational desegregation from one of its most dedicated and outspoken heroes A new afterword explains the author's controversial belief that the moment for litigating educational equality has passed clearly critiquing his own courtroom strategies and the courts' responses before closing with an assessment of the economic and social changes that he feels have already moved us beyond busing An extraordinarily informative and thoughtful book describing the process of bringing Brown v Board of Education North and the impact this process had upon national attitudes toward desegregation Drew S Days III Yale Law Journal An original analysis of a tough subject A must read for all who care about opportunity for all our children Donna E Shalala President University of Miami Paul Dimond remains a passionate and caring voice for inner city students whether in his advocacy of school desegregation school choice plans or school finance reform He illuminates these issues as one who participated in the major education cases and as a perceptive scholar Mark Yudof Chancellor The University of Texas System A must read for anyone who wants to understand America's continued failure to give inner city children a quality education or to do something about it Sheryll Cashin Author of The Failures of Integration How Race and Class Are Undermining the American Dream Dimond is particularly good at relating his slice of legal history to the broader developments of the 1970s and his occasional remarks about trial tactics are amusing and instructive Dimond's honesty about both his successes and failures makes his book required reading for civil rights lawyers Lawrence T Gresser Michigan Law Review A fascinating first hand account of 1970s northern school desegregation decisions Neal E Devins American Bar Foundation Research Journal Dimond reminds the liberal reader of the promise that lies in the empowerment of ordinary families to choose their own schools John E Coons Professor of Law Emeritus University of California Berkeley Paul R Dimond is counsel to Miller Canfield Paddock and Stone Michigan's largest law firm chairman of McKinley a national commercial real estate investment and management firm and chairman or member of the board of trustees of numerous education community and civic organizations He spent four years as President Clinton's Special Assistant for Economic Policy
