Creating world class quality standards

Introduction

Customers expect to be able to buy products that meet certain standards. Standards can be written down and published for use by manufacturers and service providers. They can be used as guidance. BSI stands for British Standards Institution. It was the world's first Standards body, and is the National Standards Body for the UK. BSI works in three main fields:

- . Setting British and international standards
- . Product testing
- . Quality management systems (QMS)

Standards are based on agreed best practice. Businesses are keen to use standards to show they have a place in global markets. There are thousands of standards covering all manner of goods and services.

Quality

A quality product or service does what the customer wants it to do. This may differ from market to market. For instance, a cheap football provides enough 'quality' for a village match. For a league match, a better ball would be needed. Many organizations try to build quality into everything they do. They do this by using a QMS. This provides a framework that helps the business to
