Correct Team Building as a Success Factor in Companies* Jann Guzikewitz,2017-09-18 Seminar paper from the year 2016 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 1 3 Buckinghamshire New University course Leading Teams language English abstract The paper provides a general definition for the terms team and leadership followed by an analysis of how to lead teams effectively By identifying team dynamics the different types of teams are explained by using Belbin s team roles and the dysfunctions of a team The meaning of leadership is reconsidered in this context The role of a leader is analysed along with different leadership styles An example of a team at ABC working against the corporate strategy is examined ABC s strategic direction and export team described and the current team structure and dynamics analysed A GAP Analysis is made leading to recommendations of action Today s organisations are facing the challenges of the 21st century Globalisation as well as a radical transformation in structure resources and expertise is increasing the level of competition in industry One of the effects is that many successful companies have changed their organisation structure from a functional matrix and to a dynamic team orientated system Thus teams are key elements of organisations business results by becoming performance and learning centres Teams are more than just a group of people working together It is about the dynamics in the team These team dynamics are responsible for a team s success or failure Today s teams are more diverse geographically dispersed digital and dynamic than ever before The management of teams is the critical success factor for organisations and has become a complex challenge for all team leaders It is necessary to strengthen skills leading to an understanding of team dynamics and to the ability to identify potentials and synergies as well as risks and weaknesses of teamwork within the own organisation To generate future competitive advantages and sustainable growth companies need to build high performing teams that align all members to work towards a common goal and maintaining the strategic direction of the company Therefore this paper will examine team dynamics It will analyse how organisations and team leaders can build teams that work towards a common goal in accordance with the organisational strategy

Creating a Culture of Competence Michael Zwell, 2000-05-22 Competence and its role in achieving peak performance remains one of the hot issues in business today Yet it s not enough for individual leaders managers and employees to demonstrate personal competencies Rather an entire organization must be unified to create a culture of competence This culture can then be passed along to succeeding generations of employees who will continue to contribute to and strengthen a company s future In Creating a Culture of Competence Michael Zwell provides a bold prescriptive approach to achieving organizational success through improved individual and group job performance and satisfaction He clearly defines those core qualities that lead to peak performance then illustrates step by step how companies can identify and develop individual leadership managerial and employee competencies for maximum personal and organizational benefit Based on years of personal experience and research Creating a Culture of Competence expertly combines behavioral theory with solid business practice to create positive organizational change You ll discover how to Use vision and competencies for cultural transformation Create competency models Implement competencies in selection and performance management You ll learn what really makes an organization successful understand how HR s role is becoming central to building a high performance organization find out what technologies are being used to change corporate culture then combine these elements to create a highly effective competency based organizational strategy Creating a Culture of Competence offers a blueprint for hiring developing and retaining a superior workforce By encouraging individuals to realize their potential then motivating them to work in concert you can lead your organization to reach its objectives and get superior business results
