Creative Art For Learning:

Creative Arts in Education and Culture Samuel Leong, Bo Wah Leung, 2013-12-01 This book offers insights into the exciting dynamics permeating creative arts education in the Greater China region focusing on the challenges of forging a future that would not reject but be enriched by its Confucian and colonial past Today's Greater China comprising China Hong Kong Macau and Taiwan has grown into a vibrant and rapidly transforming region characterized by rich historical legacies enormous dynamism and exciting cultural metamorphosis Concomitant with the economic rise of China and widespread calls for more creative and liberal education the educational and cultural sectors in the region have witnessed significant reforms in recent years Other factors that will influence the future of arts education are the emergence of a new awareness of Chinese cultural values and the uniqueness of being Chinese

Play and Creativity in Art Teaching George Szekely, 2015-03-02 In Play and Creativity in Art Teaching esteemed art educator George Szekely draws on his two classic volumes Encouraging Creativity in Art Lessons and From Play to Art to create a new book for new times The central premise is that art teachers are not only a source of knowledge about art but also a catalyst for creating conditions that encourage students to use their own ideas for making art By observing children at play and using props and situations familiar to them teachers can build on children's energy and self-initiated discoveries to inspire school art that comes from the child's imagination The foundation of this teaching approach is the belief that the essential goal of art teaching is to inspire children to behave like artists that art comes from within themselves and not from the art teacher Play and Creativity in Art Teaching offers plans for the study of children's play and for discovering creative art teaching as a way to bring play into the art room While it does not offer a teaching formula or a single set of techniques to be followed it demystifies art and shows how teachers can help children find art in familiar and ordinary places accessible to everyone This book also speaks to parents and the important roles they can play in supporting school art programs and nourishing the creativity of their children

Exploring Studio Materials Mary Claire Hafeli, 2014 Exploring Studio Materials Teaching Creative Art Making to Children is a transformative approach to teaching art in elementary and secondary schools Based on the model of how real artists create their work the text encourages teachers to work with the most common media and materials found in the Pre K 12 curriculum Hafeli provides a rich blend of real life examples and suggested classroom activities in order to help fledgling art teachers learn how to implement creative arts programs that will produce exceptional results Rather than following a structure based on preconceived ideas the book encourages experimental techniques with the materials that teachers commonly use in elementary and secondary classrooms Therefore teaching methodologies emerge from the activities themselves rather than vice versa Based on her own research teaching and contemporary approaches to arts education this approach is an effective model for bringing artistic creativity into the school curriculum

Distinctive Features Encourages teachers to work with the most common media and materials found in the Pre K 12 curriculum Establishes a meaningful organic and creative process in which teachers are discovering along with students Includes a rich combination of real life examples and suggested classroom activities

Art Education as a Radical Act Sara Torres-Vega, Wendy Woon, 2024-05-20 This comprehensive volume highlights and centers untold histories of education at the Museum of Modern Art MoMA from 1937 to 2020 using the critical voices of artists scholars designers and educators Exploring these histories as transformative and paradigm shifting in museum education it elevates MoMA educators as vocal advocates for harnessing the educational power that museums inherently possess Divided into three interlinked parts the first sheds light on the early educational endeavors of the museum while analyzing the context of art education in the United States The second part focuses on the tenures of Victor D Amico and Betty Blayton utilizing the MoMA archives as a primary resource It includes essays by Ellen Winner Luis Camnitzer Susan E Cahan Michelle Millar Fisher HECTOR Jae Shin Damon Rich Gregory Sholette Carol Duncan Moreen Maser Nana Adusei Poku Carmen M rsch Rika Burnham Donna M Jones and Jos Ortiz The third part presents the perspectives of William Burbach Philip Yenawine Patterson Sims Deborah F Schwartz and Wendy Woon as former MoMA Directors of Education in their own words and considers the forces that shaped their work This timely and unique exploration ultimately aims to trace and understand the fundamental and evolving concerns of a seemingly underexamined profession constantly striving to maintain relevance in an environment marked by institutional social and political uncertainty Exploring the radical acts undertaken to keep the museum true to its original promise it delineates the paradox whereby education is both central and invisible to the identity of MoMA and museums more broadly and re centers the conception of the museum as an educational institution It is designed for scholars researchers and post graduate students interested in arts education visual literacy museum studies and communication studies

Everyday Artists Dana Frantz Bentley, 2015-04-25 For the young child art is a way of solving problems conceptualizing the world and creating new possibilities In Everyday Artists the author addresses the disconnect that exists between the teaching of art and the way young children actually experience art In doing so this book questions commonly held notions and opens up exciting new possibilities for art education in the early childhood classroom A practicing teacher herself Bentley uses vignettes of children s everyday activities from block building to clean up to outdoor play to help teachers identify and scaffold the genuine artistic practice of young children Book Features Tangible examples of everyday arts experiences told through lively classroom stories An examination of the teacher s role with suggestions of appropriate ways to support children s artistic expression Clear explanations of how inquiry and creativity contribute to the overall thinking and learning of the young child A Voice of the Teacher section that offers teaching strategies for extending children s thinking and learning A wide range of ideas for teachers who feel they do not know how to do art Dana Frantz Bentley is a teacher researcher and preschool teacher at Buckingham Browne and Nichols School in Cambridge Massachusetts She received a Doctorate of Education Art and Art Education from Teachers College Columbia University Much has been written about the role of the arts in education especially about the importance of the arts to early childhood learning Dana Frantz Bentley endows the arts with an additional and central kind of significance rooted in a broad conception of cognition From the Foreword by Judith M Burton Teachers College Columbia University Like the young children she describes Dana Frantz Bentley is an everyday artist making something beautiful of her informed and thoughtful pedagogy There is much to learn from the artful reflection and generative inquiry of this inspired early childhood educator Jessica Hoffmann Davis author of Why Our Schools Need the Arts
