The Cinderella Complex Colette Dowling,1982 Cinderella Complex Colette Dowling,1994 A Shawl of Mist Yukiko Inoue-Smith,2012-06-07 The concept of a universal human nature suggests that American scholars and American readers of Japanese literature may interpret the elements in Japanese tanka based on emotions and on meanings attached to natural images that are common to all of humanity It is hoped that readers will experience this ancient style of Japanese poetry in such a way that they are inspired to write their own tanka poems Such is one of the purposes of A Shawl of Mist Another purpose of this book is to share essays written to accompany and complement the tanka poems The short essays included here provide practical thoughts based on the author s long years of personal and professional experiences studying reading teaching thinking and especially cherishing each day of living in Japan the United States and Guam The Cinderella Complex ,1996 A Jungle Named Academia Yukiko Inoue-Smith,2015-11-03 Professional ethics require continuous self improvement of professors through writing reading and learning no less than for students Promoting excellence in scholarship mentoring students in their research and effectively teaching are vital elements in our professional and personal growth However any one of these could be a full time job in itself To excel in each role it is essential for faculty members to reflect daily on our work What is the role of comparisons in this reflection Though our colleagues successes may suggest to us possibilities in our own work that we didn t know existed there is a danger that our neighbor s flowers will always seem more beautiful than our own We should let comparisons with others suggest new approaches to our goals but never focus on comparing our outcomes successes and failures with those of other people Instead we should focus on steadily improving our own levels of mastery of skills in scholarship and in work with students In American academia where both faculty members and students are ethnically and culturally diverse such that we will often find our assumptions challenged reflective thinking is even more essential than in a culturally homogeneous environment Hence reflective systematic approaches to daily practice in reading teaching and writing are powerful survival tactics and are likely to sustain one s vitality and productivity as a member of the academy The International Journal of Indian Psychology, Volume 3, Issue 3, No. 8 IJIP.In,2016-06-10 This gives me an immense pleasure to announce that RED SHINE Publication Inc is coming out with its third volume of peer reviewed international journal named as The International Journal of Indian Psychology IJIP Journal of Studies is a humble effort to come out with an affordable option of a low cost publication journal and high quality of publication services at no profit no loss basis with the objective of helping young genius scholars and seasoned academicians to show their psychological research works to the world at large and also to fulfill their academic aspirations My Seven Other Mothers Lenetta Raysha Lee,2011-09-26 Mothering is a central and vital aspect of our lives Simultaneously it s a sensitive and complex issue for many people to discuss The story My Seven Mothers however challenges us to revisit our understanding of mothers As we enter into lives of these women mothers we undoubtedly will notice their unique inner and
