Addictive Organization:

The Addictive Organization Anne Wilson Schaef, Diane Fassel, 1988 Workaholism is a destructive behavior that society encourages in the erroneous belief that it results in increased productivity This book Challenges of Modernization and Governance in South Korea Jae-Jung Suh, Mikyoung Kim, 2017-07-31 Focusing on the sinking of the Sewol a commercial ferry which capsized off the South Korean coast in April 2014 this book considers key issues of disaster governance civil society and the ideational transformation of human agents and their empowerment Providing a lens through which to re-examine South Korean institutions laws and practices the volume examines the impact of the Sewol incident and what it reveals about the fault lines of South Korean society and governance It addresses the repercussions of South Korea's turn to a liberal democracy and neoliberal economy and reflects on the multilayered implications of the disaster in respect to the potential human costs of the country's state-driven development policy and high stress modernisation The book also highlights the relevance of the Korean experience for other societies on a similar developmental trajectories and facing similar challenges

Supervision In The Helping Professions Hawkins, Peter, Shohet, Robin, 2012-07-01 Supervision in the Helping Professions remains a core text in our trainings and we welcome the updates including the increased focus on ethics and diversity the discussion of enabled modes of supervision and the review of research What is so encouraging to students trainers and practitioners is the beginner's mind with which the authors continue to approach the subject their tireless enthusiasm for enquiry and their commitment to the learning edge The launch of this edition coincides with the launch of the first UKCP Professional Register for Supervisors The authors have done much to promote the development of supervision and all future professional trainings in supervision will rely on their wisdom and experience Key words for this edition are sustainability resourcing and deeper levels of self-reflection mirroring the movement of our profession which increasingly turns outwards asking how we can effect societal as well as individual change Tree Staunton Director of Studies Bath Centre for Psychotherapy and Counselling and Chair of the Humanistic and Integrative College of UKCP This book remains a seminal text in supervision In the fourth edition the authors bring a contemporary perspective to bear on supervision with an emphasis on the wider contextual and cultural contexts of our work as supervisors I appreciate above all the fearless compassion with which the authors have addressed the challenges that face us as supervisors in a global culture and at the same time their ongoing stress on integrating the emotional and the rational the personal and the organizational in a very accessible model of supervision Professor Maria Gilbert Metanoia Institute West London This bestselling book provides a comprehensive guide to supervision for professionals across the social care and helping professions as well as those working in education coaching and human resources Thoroughly updated the book has a new introduction showing how the world context in which helping professions operate has fundamentally changed in the last 25 years and the implications of this for supervision The seven-eyed supervision model at the core of the book has been expanded and developed to reflect its use in many professions and different parts of the world The authors also incorporate viewpoints from other academics and practitioners who have commented on the model New to this edition A new chapter on ethics and handling difficult situations in supervision A new chapter and new models of reflective practice New material on training supervisors including the important area of supervision of supervision Revised chapters on group and team supervision with new material on supervising team development and team coaching More case studies of supervision in a wide range of different professions Further practical advice for supervisees on how to recognize contribute to and ask for good supervision With contributions from Judy Ryde and Joan Wilmot Strategic Action for Animals Melanie Joy,2008 Business Decisions, Human Choices Lloyd C. Williams,1996-07-17 Dr Williams contends that over the last 20 years a change has occurred in organizations that has created a syndrome of dysfunctions that are neither good for businesses nor for the people who work in them Williams sees businesses as living entities and argues that how they act and react will have an impact on their employees and often a devastating impact In much the same way as businesses make decisions people make choices and seldom are these decisions and choices congruent Unless disparate self interests and goals can be reconciled unless a partnership can be restored between people and their organizations not only will employees be damaged but the success of their organization upon which they depend for their livelihoods will be jeopardized How this dangerous situation came about what it means and how it can be remedied is the subject of Dr Williams book Research based and always in touch with the realities of commerce Dr Williams will make business people aware that organizations and their people must become reunited and then show them how it can be done Dr Williams makes clear he is not simply speculating or theorizing His goal is to make management aware of the dysfunctions that are damaging their organizations and how these are reflected in the behaviors of their employees When he calls for a focus on humanity spirit and context Dr Williams is actually offering a workable real world strategy to breathe new life into organizations of all kinds a strategy he calls The Trinity Process Its purpose to help management restore the essential partnership between organizational entities and the people who make them succeed or fail In Part One he shows what it means to be part of any organization and with anecdotes and cases from his own research helps readers grasp the dynamics of their own organizations In Part Two he proposes new or reframed paradigms that provide an underpinning for the reestablishment of equality between organizations and their employees Then in Part Three he presents The Trinity Process itself The result is a remarkably lucid readable engrossing exploration of organizational life today important reading for decision makers in all types of organizations public as well as private and for academics concerned with how organizations behave The Complete Book of Everyday Christianity R. Paul Stevens,Robert Banks,2018-12-01 I am thrilled to know that The Complete Book of Everyday Christianity is being relaunched A well worn first edition of this book sits next to my office desk and I consult it often There is no better collection of everyday issues examined from a Christian perspective A wide variety of topics are addressed with a cleverly balanced combination of academic and practical perspectives informed by thoughtful biblical and theological reflection This is a wonderfully useful tool I am pleased that it will be available to resource a new generation of Christians who are eager to understand more about what it means to follow Christ in every aspect of life Alistair Mackenzie Senior Lecturer School of Theology Mission and Ministry Laidlaw College Christchurch New Zealand Also Director of Faith at Work NZ The Addictive Organization Diane Fassel, 1987 The study proposes a design for recovery in the addictive organization and draws some tentative conclusions as to what organizations would look like if in the future they operated from a recovery process All conclusions point to higher productivity and healthier workforce if the addictive process is addressed

Subversive Spirituality L Paul Jensen, 2011-06-30 Subversive Spirituality links the practice and study of Christian spirituality with Christian mission It develops a twofold thesis grace spiritual disciplines and mission practices are inseparably linked in the mission of Jesus of the early church and of several historical renewal movements as well as in a contemporary field research sample and amidst the collapse of space and time evidenced by our culture's increasingly hurried pace of life more time and space are needed for regular solitary and communal spiritual practices in church mission and leadership structures if Christian mission is to transform people and culture in our time This requires a subversion of the collapsed spatial and temporal codes that have infected our Christian institutions Jensen employs methods and approaches from a variety of academic disciplines to explore both spirituality in terms of space and time and mission in terms of deed and word Specifically Jensen examines the spirituality and mission of Jesus the early church the apostolic fathers Origen the Devotio Moderna the early Jesuits David Brainerd and several women in 19th century Protestant missions He considers the spirituality and mission that have arisen within the postmodern generations born after 1960 Based on the theological historical cultural and field analyses of this study a model for spirituality and mission is proposed The model addresses the contemporary collapse of space and time and appears to have widespread applicability to diverse cultures and eras Jensen's model is applied to the pluralistic and postmodern milieu of North America with recommendations for spirituality and mission in church mission and educational structures A derivative model for teaching and practicing spirituality and mission in the academy which also has application for non formal leadership development structures is also proposed
