Actor Performs:

An Actor Performs Mel Shapiro, 2006 Equally useful to beginning intermediate and advanced students of acting it addresses problems common to all actors understanding the text finding a viable interpretation dealing with the language of the play and using one's body and mind and imagination to create a fully realised performance Acting and Performance in Moving Image Culture Jörg Sternagel, Deborah Levitt, Dieter Mersch, 2014-03-15 This volume offers transdisciplinary perspectives on the study of acting and performance in moving image forms It assembles 26 international scholars from dance theatre film media and cultural studies art history and philosophy to investigate the art of acting and the presence of the human body in analog and digital film animation and video art The volume includes classical case studies and essays devoted to acting history and acting and genres but its particular emphasis is on introducing a wide range of groundbreaking theoretical approaches from continental and analytic philosophy to new media theory and cognitivist research all of which interrogate the fundamental conceptions of act and actor that underwrite both popular and academic notions of performance in moving image culture

Performing Migrancy and Mobility in Africa Mark Fleishman, 2014-12-02 Performing Migrancy and Mobility in Africa focuses on a body of performance work the work of Magnet Theatre in particular but also work by other artists in Cape Town and other parts of the continent or the world that engages with the Cape as a real or imagined node in a complex system of migration and mobility Located at the foot of the African continent lodged between two oceans at the intersection of many of the earth's major shipping lanes Cape Town is a stage for a powerful mixing of cultures and peoples and has been an important node in a network of flows circuits of movement and exchange The performance works studied here attempt to get to grips with what it feels like to be on the move and in the spaces in between that characterises the lives now and for centuries before of multiple peoples who move around and pass through places like the Cape The contributors are a broad range of mostly African authors from various parts of the continent and as such the book offers an insight into new thinking and new approaches from an emerging and important location

Group Performance Bernard A.
