Institutionalizing East Asia Alice D. Ba, Cheng-Chwee Kuik, Sueo Sudo, 2016-03-10 Institutional activities have remarkably transformed East Asia a region once known for the absence of regionalism and regime building efforts Yet the dynamics of this Asian institutionalization have remained an understudied area of research This book offers one of the first scholarly attempts to clarify what constitutes institutionalization in East Asia and to systematically trace the origins discern the features and analyze the prospects of ongoing institutionalization processes in the world's most dynamic region Institutionalizing East Asia comprises eight essays grouped thematically into three sections Part I considers East and Southeast Asia as focal points of inter state exchanges and traces the institutionalization of inter state cooperation first among the Southeast Asian states and then among those of the wider East Asia Part II examines the institutionalization of regional collaboration in four domains economy security natural disaster relief and ethnic conflict management Part III discusses the institutionalization dynamics at the sub regional and inter regional levels The essays in this book offer a useful source of reference for scholars and researchers specializing in East Asia regional architecture and institution building in international relations They will also be of interest to postgraduate and research students interested in ASEAN the drivers and limits of international cooperation as well as the role of regional multilateralism in the Asia Pacific region
