Civilians and Modern War Daniel Rothbart, Karina Korostelina, Mohammed Cherkaoui, 2012-08-06 This book explores the issue of civilian devastation in modern warfare focusing on the complex processes that effectively establish civilians' identity in times of war Underpinning the physicality of war's tumult are structural forces that create landscapes of civilian vulnerability Such forces operate in four sectors of modern warfare: nationalistic ideology, state-sponsored militaries, global media, and international institutions Each sector promotes its own constructions of civilian identity in relation to militant combatants constructions that prove lethal to the civilian noncombatant who lacks political power and decision-making capacity with regards to their own survival Civilians and Modern War provides a critical overview of the plight of civilians in war examining the political and normative underpinnings of the decisions, actions, policies, and practices of major sectors of war The contributors seek to undermine the tunnelling effect of the militaristic framework regarding the experiences of noncombatants This book will be of much interest to students of war and conflict studies, ethics, conflict resolution, and IR Security Studies
