

A New Chapter

Horjos had just finished putting his new shoes on when he caught his reflection in the hallway mirror. He was looking sharp, so why was he feeling a little apprehensive about leaving home? As he headed out, his mum gave him an extra big squeeze. "Good luck, son."

"Thanks, Mum, I'll be fine," he reassured her, at the same time reassuring himself. He and his best friend Tilly took the short walk to Applebrook Academy. He had spent the whole summer looking forward to this day, so why was his stomach doing backflips with every step he took?

Walking through the large, rusty gates, he felt so small. He and Tilly weaved through the large gathering of chatty students who had congregated at the front of the building. Taking an extra-large deep breath, he took his first steps through the Year 7 entrance. Passing door upon door... he felt lost. Where was he? At Loburnum Primary, walking into school was a breeze – as soon as he entered the building, he was in his classroom, but here, he felt like an ant lost in a maze.

"Year 7s?" a friendly face caught his eye – finally, someone he recognised from summer school: the lady ushered them into the auditorium. The room was buzzing with excited chatter. He and Tilly sat with his new classmates in class 7D. After his new headteacher gave them a warm welcome, Horjos felt the anxiety monster within him shrink a little. He was finally here, and he was starting to feel excited about what the day would bring.

The day passed super fast... he blinked, and it was already lunchtime, and he had completely forgotten how worried he had been! That morning, he had played electric guitar in music, acted on the stage in drama, planned and designed a go-kart to create in technology, and painted a self-portrait in art – all in one morning. Now, he was tucking into quite possibly the best pizza he had ever had – double the size of the one he used to have at primary school.

The rest of the day went without a hitch (although he did get lost once, but the teachers understood!). As he walked home with Tilly, Horjos realised that despite the nerves this morning, he was so pleased he was finally at secondary school. Yes, it is different going to a new classroom for every subject, but he had a map and the teachers were all very understanding if they couldn't find the room immediately. He was glad that he gave everything a go today, even if the music he played didn't sound great, he had such a laugh giving it a go. New experiences are all part of growing up – what a great start to a brand-new adventure.

And what an adventure it will be!
