A Radical Life:

Unionism in the United Kingdom, 1918-1974 P. Ward, 2005-03-01 This book examines the range and complexity of unionist political identities ideas and beliefs in the non English parts of the United Kingdom in the mid twentieth century It discusses the careers of eight politicians from Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland and uncovers the varieties of unionism that held the multi national UK together Challenging the idea that Britain was in the process of breaking up it argues that the Union provided a focus for loyalty in the United Kingdom that contributed to the continuing formation of identities of Britishness

Intimate afterlives of empire Astrid Rasch, 2025-09-02 Through close readings of almost twenty autobiographies written after the break up of the British Empire the book examines how individuals engage with the changing narrative landscape brought about by decolonisation It considers the autobiographies less for what they may teach us about the moment remembered and more as windows on the act of remembering This adds a crucial dimension to our understanding of the legacies of colonialism and how the ongoing process of decolonisation is reflected on the level of the individual It argues that autobiographers are at once influenced by and seek to influence the cultural memory of empire and its legacies and the authors own position in both Situated at the intersection of imperial decolonisation history memory studies and life writing studies the book uncovers this intimate afterlife of empire

No Turning Back Rashawn Copeland, 2022-03-29 For many of us believing in Jesus feels like the first step on a journey that can only get better and better with every step Then trials come and it can be hard to keep walking When faced with disappointment disillusionment doubt and death we may be tempted to turn back The road ahead seems too hard too long too fraught with danger and difficulty With great passion and deep understanding of the struggles believers go through Rashawn Copeland encourages and inspires you to stay the course In No Turning Back he shares practical and productive ways you can experience true and lasting growth based on the promises God makes to those who follow him He shows you how to apply the truths of Scripture to be transformed by God s power grow your identity in Christ renew your mind free yourself from your past and become the person God has called you to be

North Carolina Women Michele Gillespie, Sally G. McMillen, 2015-07-01 By the twentieth century North Carolina s progressive streak had strengthened thanks in large part to a growing number of women who engaged in and influenced state and national policies and politics These women included Gertrude Weil who fought tirelessly for the Nineteenth Amendment which extended suffrage to women and founded the state chapter of the League of Women Voters once the amendment was ratified in 1920 Gladys Avery Tillett an ardent Democrat and supporter of Roosevelt s New Deal became a major presence in her party at both the state and national levels Guion Griffis Johnson turned to volunteer work in the postwar years becoming one of the state s most prominent female civic leaders Through her excellent education keen legal mind and family prominence Susie Sharp in 1949 became the first woman judge in North Carolina and in 1974 the first woman in the nation to be elected and serve as chief justice of a state supreme court Throughout her life the Reverend Dr Anna Pauline Pauli Murray charted a religious literary and political path to racial reconciliation on both a national stage and in North Carolina This is the second of two volumes that together explore the diverse and changing patterns of North Carolina women s lives The essays in this volume cover the period beginning with women born in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries but who made their greatest contributions to the social political cultural legal and economic life of the state during the late progressive era through the late twentieth century Martyr of Loray Mill Kristina Horton,2015-07-11 Union organizer and balladeer Ella May became a martyr for workers nationwide when she was murdered on her way to a union meeting in Gastonia North Carolina at age 28 A mother of nine and bookkeeper for the communist led National Textile Workers Union May worked to organize fellow mill workers in Gaston County Her efforts to organize black workers along with her brash outspoken manner incensed the local community and she was shot by an anti union vigilante group on September 14 1929 Written by her great granddaughter this book tells Ella May s story including her involvement in the Loray Mill Strike the largest communist led strike on American soil Her most famous ballad Mill Mother s Lament reveals her motivation It is for our little children Research and Review ,1908 Life's Greatest Problem and how it is Solved W.
