Corinthians 11 14 from the role of women in public worship to the value of speaking in tongues and prophecy for the unbeliever have long posed challenges to the lay reader and scholar Despite numerous explanations offered over the years these passages remain marked by inconsistencies contradictions and puzzles Lucy Peppiatt offers an interpretation in which she proposes that Paul was in conversation with the Corinthian male leadership concerning their domineering superior and selfish practices which included coercing women to wear head coverings lording it over the have nots at the Lord s Supper and ordering married women to keep quiet in church Peppiatt s bold arguments not only bring internal coherence to the text but also paint a picture of the apostle gripped by a vision for a new humanity in the Lord resulting in his refusal to compromise with the traditional views of his own society Instead Paul tells the Corinthians to become more like Christ to make love their aim and to restore dignity and honour to women outsiders and the poor
