The Story of a Life Aharon Appelfeld, 2009-08-19 In spare haunting almost hallucinogenic prose the internationally acclaimed award winning novelist shares with us for the first time the story of his own extraordinary survival and rebirth Aharon Appelfeld's childhood ended when he was seven years old The Nazis occupied Czernowitz in 1941 penned the Jews into a ghetto and a few months later sent whoever had not been shot or starved to death on a forced march across the Ukraine to a labor camp As men women and children fall away around them Aharon and his father his mother was killed in the early days of the occupation miraculously survive and Aharon even more miraculously escapes from the camp shortly after he arrives there The next few years of Aharon's life are both harrowing and heartrending he hides alone in the Ukrainian forests from peasants who are only too happy to turn Jewish children over to the Nazis he has the presence of mind to pass himself off as an orphaned gentile when he emerges from the forest to seek work and at war's end he joins the stream of refugees as they cross Europe on their way to displaced persons camps that have been set up for the survivors He observes the full range of personalities in the camps exploitation exists side by side with compassion until he manages to get on a ship bound for Palestine Once there Aharon attempts to build a new life while struggling to retain the barely remembered fragments of his old life everyone urges him simply to forget what he had experienced and he takes his first tentative steps as a writer As he begins to receive national attention Aharon realizes his life's calling to bear witness to the unfathomable In this unforgettable work of memory Aharon Appelfeld offers personal glimpses into the experiences that resonate throughout his fiction

Aharon Appelfeld's Fiction Emily Miller Budick, 2005-01-17 How can a fictional text adequately or meaningfully represent the events of the Holocaust Drawing on philosopher Stanley Cavell's ideas about acknowledgment as a respectful attentiveness to the world Emily Miller Budick develops a penetrating philosophical analysis of major works by internationally prominent Israeli writer Aharon Appelfeld Through sensitive discussions of the novels Badenheim 1939 The Iron Tracks The Age of Wonders and Tzili and the autobiographical work The Story of My Life Budick reveals the compelling art with which Appelfeld renders the sights sensations and experiences of European Jewish life preceding during and after the Second World War She argues that it is through acknowledging the incompleteness of our knowledge and understanding of the catastrophe that Appelfeld's fiction produces not only its stunning aesthetic power but its affirmation and faith in both the human and the divine This beautifully written book provides a moving introduction to the work of an important and powerful writer and an enlightening meditation on how fictional texts deepen our understanding of historical events Jewish Literature and Culture Alvin H Rosenfeld editor

All Whom I Have Loved Aharon Appelfeld, 2015-03-10 All Whom I Have Loved is the haunting story of a Jewish family in Eastern Europe in the 1930s as seen through the eyes of an unforgettable nine year old boy The beloved only child of divorced parents Paul watches helplessly as his family and his world dissolve around him At first he lives with his mother a secular assimilated schoolteacher whom he adores until she betrays him by marrying a gentile He's then sent to live with his father once an admired avant garde artist but now reviled by the critics as a decadent Jew who drowns his anger pain and humiliation in drink Paul searches in vain for a life of stability and meaning The earthy peasant girl who briefly takes care of him the pull he feels toward the Jews praying in the local synagogue and his fascination with Eastern Orthodox church rituals give him only tantalizing glimpses into worlds of which he can never be a part The fates that Paul's parents will meet with Paul as terrified witness and his own fate as an orphaned Jewish child alone in Europe in 1938 are rendered by Aharon Appelfeld with extraordinary subtlety and power as they foreshadow in the heart wrenching story of three individuals the cataclysm that is about to engulf all of European Jewry him read from his work and occasionally offers a spirited commentary on it But Ernst s writing gives him no satisfaction and he is haunted by his godless Communist past His health already poor begins to deteriorate even further he becomes mired in depression and seems to lose the will to live But this is something Irena will not allow As she becomes an increasingly important part of his life moving into his home encouraging him in his work easing his pain Ernst not only regains his sense of self and discovers the path through which his writing can flow but he also discovers to his amazement that Irena is in love with him And even more astonishing he realizes that he is in love with her too

Appelfeld, Aron Appelfeld, 1994-04-14 To the Land of the Cattails evokes the uncanny atmosphere of Europe on the brink of the Holocaust with the same dreamlike realism that made The Age of Wonders a modern classic In the summer of 1938 a Jewish woman living in Austria suddenly gripped by a longing for her native land departs with her adolescent son for the interior of Eastern Europe As she proceeds the landscape turns increasingly ominous and her son progressively more loutish Just short of their goal the young man falls into a drunken stupor When he finally rouses himself and rushes to join his mother he is told she has been shipped off on a mysterious train to an unspecified destination To the Land of Cattails is a haunting parable of the human spirit and an unforgettable account of the destiny of modern European Jewry Unto the Soul Aharon Appelfeld, 1998-01-20 In turn of the century Eastern Europe a brother and sister have been chosen to guard an ancient cemetery of Jewish martyrs situated on an isolated mountain The endless snows protect them from the pogroms and plagues that rage in the world below but that same protective blanket cuts them off from their people and tradition Escape from loneliness from wavering piety and from the burgeoning desire they feel for one another becomes impossible A parable for our times by the writer whom Irving Howe called one of the best novelists alive Unto the Soul lays bare the deepest stirrings of religious feeling and despair within the human soul Aharon Appelfeld's Fiction, 2005 Badenheim 1939 Aharon Appelfeld, 1980 Contains Betsy Rosenberg's revised translation which will be of great interest to all scholars and students of Hebrew fiction Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved
