Orwell's 1984 or Thea von Harbou's Metropolis show us bleak worlds where capitalism has no boundaries and has corrupted sovereign powers exploiting the lower classes and benefiting only a few at the top. Political laws and policies related to human life or the biopolitical devalue that life making humanity little more than expendable machines producing for capitalism and capitalism's focus on progress has made it a central concern in much of science fiction. Covering science fiction from the early 1900s to present this book examines the portrayal of dystopian capitalism and the biopolitical in works like Brave New World and R U R among many others.

Collision 2012 Dan Balz, 2014-08-26
From the bestselling author of The Battle for America 2008 and longtime Washington Post correspondent an inside view and analysis of the Obama Romney presidential race. In 2008 a bright young candidate triumphed on a theme of change and hope. Four years later an embattled President struggled against an apocalyptically divided and divisive Congress a war that won't end and an economy that casts a dark penumbra over every spark of good news. His opponent a well heeled businessman who couldn't seem to stand on his own business record withstood unexpected and extreme opposition to capture the nomination of a party whose main platform and principles with which he was historically and fundamentally at odds. The 2012 Election once predicted to be a boring run at a popular President took on a new urgency with the infamous 2010 midterm shellacking and equally infamous Citizen United ruling and delivered drama and tension as the Republicans tried to reconcile the factions at war within their party and Democrats faced the tsunami of super Pac money flooding local and regional elections. As with his last book The Battle for America 2008 Washington Post correspondent Dan Balz uses a combination of superb sources and long deep reporting experience to take us both deep inside and far beyond Campaign HQs in Chicago and Boston. He tracks the nuances of Beltway politics and the thinking behind the scenes to show how Obama regained his footing and to speculate about whether this election actually did anything to change the toxically poisonous atmosphere inside the Beltway the increasing hostility and disenchantment with politicians outside and the frightening effect of the torrent of money being poured out by special interest groups beholden to no voter or law. Will there be anything in this election that will heal the political process in America. Special highlights include two much talked about post election interviews with Romney and Christie which have been making headlines as well as a new afterword.
