China In A Polycentric World Essays In Chineses Comparative Literature:

China in a Polycentric World Yingjin Zhang, 1998 This collection provides a critical reexamination of the development and current status of comparative literature studies that engage the literary practices of both China and the West In so doing it attempts to refashion literary methodologies and cultural theories in Chinese studies and reread several noncanonical texts in ways that cut across disciplines genders and modernities Eschewing conventional taxonomies such as the study of literary influences and parallels this volume shifts the emphasis from Chinese Western comparativism to a critical rereading of Chinese or China related texts using a variety of new critical approaches Essays that draw on literary history comparative poetics modernist aesthetics feminist studies gender theory and postcolonial discourse exemplify how multifaceted approaches can enrich our understanding of this field The essays are grouped in three parts studies of disciplines institutions and canon formation gender sexuality and the body and technology modernity and aesthetics They cover a range of subjects including the challenge of East West comparative literature the impact of literary theory on Sinological research canon formation in traditional Chinese poetry gender and sexuality in Ming drama contemporary Chinese fiction and television drama the problem of translation the influence of science fiction and the cult of poetry in post Mao China The introductory chapter traces the rise of the Chinese school of comparative literature and addresses the issues facing Western scholars of Chinese Western comparative literature A concluding chapter summarizes recent remappings of the geocultural world and outlines future possibilities for comparative literature

Asian Folklore Studies, 2005 Between Tears and Laughter

Lin Yutang, 2018-12-05 Now sorrowful now joking but always in deadly earnest the Chinese philosopher faces the grim facts of war and the grimmer prospects of peace Dismayed by the materialism of the West he offers not a blueprint for the postwar world but an approach to thinking about it that is new to us but not new at all to the Orient wise in the ways of Man This book is a positive contribution from the store of Chinese political philosophy to the vexed question of world peace More important than the Four Freedoms says Lin is Freedom from Humbug The changes in our thinking must be basic if we are to be saved from utter disaster We cannot be saved by science by mathematics by modern mechanism We need deep draughts of the wine of wisdom matured through four thousand years by Asiatic thought and experience in learning how man must deal with man Confucius and Lao tse the ancient Greeks and the Hindus join forces with Lin Yutang in his thrusts at such topics as The White Man s Burden American Isolationism British Imperialism Nazi Geopolitics the Crimes of Europe The Future of Asia and The Crux of the Modern Age No citizen of the Western world can ignore this wisdom and this warning except at his own peril A powerful and relentless warning Boston Herald If you think a gentle well mannered philosopher can t deliver a punch you d better read this book It s out and out sensational no less enormously provocative San Francisco Chronicle He gives us mixed with the tolerance and humor of the philosopher some of the plainest speaking we have had in a long time on the issue of the war and the peace The New Yorker Asia and World Literature, 2010
