The China Question Dragan Pavličević, Nicole Talmacs, 2022-05-03 The China Question Contestations and Adaptations provides fresh perspectives on and empirics about China's international relations through the lens of the local and regional configurations and developments around the world While China's foreign policy strategies have received much attention and in particular the Belt and Road Initiative BRI the local contestations and or adaptations that China provokes in the countries and regions it engages remain under researched In this book a global collection of scholars examines how countries societies and individuals around the world are responding to China's rise

The China Question Ho-fung Hung, 2026-02-12 For centuries Western scholars portrayed China either as a land of superior morality economy and governance or as a formidable country of pagans that posed a global threat to Western values Idealized images of China were used to shame rulers for their incompetence while China was demonized as an external threat to cover up domestic political failures In the twentieth century the geopolitics of global capitalism have facilitated more nuanced perspectives but the diversifying of knowledge about China is far from complete In this thought provoking study Ho fung Hung finds that both Western elites and China's authoritarian regime today continue to promote many Orientalist stereotypes to advance their economic interests and political projects He shows how big picture historical social and economic changes are inextricably linked to fluctuations in the realm of ideas Only open debate can overcome extremes of fantasy and fear

The China Mission Year Book ,1920 Decolonizing Global Intelligence Pak Nung Wong,2025-07-24 From September 11 to the calamitous withdrawal of United States troops from Afghanistan Western intelligence has failed to negotiate the largest military and humanitarian crises across the world This book proposes to decolonize global intelligence from the peripheries of the Global South and put forward a new intelligence practice of inclusive statecraft It shows how dominant Western intelligence systems have failed to protect the very ideas they promised to uphold and the discrepancy between the West s Responsibility to Protect R2P liberalist doctrine and the realist on the ground complex reality as observed by the Failure to Protect F2P scholarships Drawing theoretical insights and empirical both historical and contemporary materials from a wide array of case studies of Western and non Western intelligence settings and practices as well as their interactions it argues that the next generation of global security and intelligence practitioners will necessitate genuine interracial non anthropocentric and cross cultural inclusivity especially the capability to take the non Western intelligence cultures and their realist strategic thoughts seriously This book will not just add new knowledge to the larger field of security and intelligence studies but will also pioneer the relatively underdeveloped fields of comparative intelligence cultures and interstellar intelligence cultural studies It will be indispensable for policymakers bureaucrats and government
