Country Life, 1907 The Aboriginal Story of Burke and Wills Ian Clark, Fred Cahir, 2013-07-22 The Aboriginal Story of Burke and Wills is the first major study of Aboriginal associations with the Burke and Wills expedition of 1860-61. A main theme of the book is the contrast between the skills, perceptions and knowledge of the Indigenous people and those of the new arrivals and the extent to which this affected the outcome of the expedition. The book offers a reinterpretation of the literature surrounding Burke and Wills using official correspondence, expedition journals and diaries, visual art and archaeological and linguistic research, and then complements this with references to Aboriginal oral histories and social memory. It highlights the interaction of expedition members with Aboriginal people and their subsequent contribution to Aboriginal studies. The book also considers contemporary and multi-disciplinary critiques that the expedition members were on the whole deficient in bush craft, especially in light of the expedition's failure to use Aboriginal guides in any systematic way. Generously illustrated with historical photographs and line drawings, The Aboriginal Story of Burke and Wills is an important resource for Indigenous people, Burke and Wills history enthusiasts and the wider community. This book is the outcome of an Australian Research Council project.

Some Strange Corners of Our Country Charles Fletcher Lummis, 1892 Lummis's prose portraits of the Grand Canyon, Petrified Forest, Montezuma Castle and other sites reflect the author's knowledge of Southwest anthropology and history.

Marty Robbins Barbara J. Pruett, 2007-07-26 From his first performance in the late 1940s until his early death in 1982, Marty Robbins established himself as one of the most popular and successful singer-songwriters in the latter half of the 20th century. On the country charts, he racked up 151 hits, including the crossover smashes El Paso and A White Sport Coat and a Pink Carnation. A beloved entertainer, Robbins received honors from every major music association. El Paso became the first Grammy ever awarded to a country song, while My Woman, My Woman, My Wife received the 1970 Grammy for Best Country Song. In 1969, Robbins was named artist of the decade by the Academy of Country Music. He was inducted into the Nashville Songwriters Hall of Fame in 1975 and the Country Music Hall of Fame in 1982. In addition to his success as a singer-songwriter, Robbins loved car racing. In the early 1970s, he joined the NASCAR circuit and raced the rest of his life. In Marty Robbins: Fast Cars and Country Music, author Barbara J. Pruett provides an exhaustive overview of Robbins' life and career. Nearly half of the book is a chronological listing starting in 1948 of more than 2,000 magazine and newspaper articles and other sources of information about Robbins. Another section provides a basic discography of his hundreds of recordings, including both albums and singles released in his lifetime and after. The book also features a list of all of the songs he copyrighted, stories about his stock car racing activities, several previously unpublished photographs and interviews with those who knew and worked with him, and even an extensive interview with Robbins himself. As a tribute to a great entertainer, this volume will be of interest not only to entertainment writers and researchers but also to Marty Robbins fans worldwide.
