Borderland Battles Annette Idler, 2019-01-25 This book argues that borderlands intensify security threats at the conflict crime nexus It demonstrates the multiple insecurities that arise from complex interactions among rebels criminals and other violent non state groups Challenging urban biases and state centric views it draws on unprecedented multi year fieldwork in the war torn marginalized Colombian Ecuadorian and Colombian Venezuelan borderlands

Gendering Security and Insecurity Navtej K. Purewal, Sophia Dingli, 2020-06-05 Security studies and international relations have conventionally relegated gendered analysis to the margins of academic concern most commonly through the women in or women and politics and IR discourse This comprehensive volume contributes to debates which seek to move feminist scholarship away from the reification of the war peace and security economy divides By foregrounding the empirical reality of the breakdown of these traditional divisions the authors pay particular attention to frameworks which query their very existence In doing so the collection as a whole troubles the ubiquitous concept and practices of in security and their effects on differentially positioned subjects By gendering in securities in states of exception and other paradigms of government related to it especially in postcolonial and neocolonial contexts the book provides an approach that allows us to study the complex and interrelated security logics which constitute the messy realities of different and particularly vulnerable subjects lives In other words it suggests that these frameworks are ripe for feminist interventions and analysis of the logics and production of in securities as well as of resistance and hybridisation This book was originally published as an online special issue of the journal Third World Thematics

The Darién Gap Belén Fernández, 2025-08-12 The narrow Darién Gap the only land bridge connecting South and Central America encompasses a spectacularly hostile jungle covered in steep mountains dense rainforests and flood prone marshes Known in Spanish as el infierno verde or the green hell it is one of the most inhospitable places in the world Its terrain is too treacherous for roads yet hundreds of thousands of refuge seekers contend with its horrors every year in the hopes of reaching the United States still some three thousand miles away And of the countless who set out for the border an untold number never arrive In this book journalist Belén Fernández visits the Darién Gap to report on the dehumanizing and deadly stretch of land that has become a mass graveyard for migrants Fernández's travels bring her into contact with refuge seekers people smugglers law enforcement officials and many more whose stories bring life to a place overwhelmingly associated with death Combining history on the ground reporting travelogue memoir and searing politico economic analysis she shines light on a largely made in the USA crisis that has come to define our modern era Engrossing and heartrending The Dari n Gap is a poignant and compassionate indictment of structural inequality and institutionalized inhumanity in a world where the have nots must risk death for a chance at a better life or any life at all Examining
