

COPING WITH PEER PRESSURE

Peer pressure is when someone tries to convince you to do something you may not really want to do. Sometimes people will pretend to be your friend in order to get you to do things that you know are wrong. These kids will act nice to you sometimes, but other times they might threaten you or make fun of you if you don't do as they say.

How to know if it's peer pressure!

Ask yourself these questions to help figure out if it is peer pressure:

- Does it feel wrong to me?
- Will this person stop being my friend if I don't do what they want?
- Is this something that will get me in trouble?
- Are they name-calling me or making me feel guilty?
- Would I do it if an adult was around?

Ways to cope with peer pressure!

- Be confident in yourself and your decisions. Listen to your instincts! If it feels like it's a bad idea...don't do it!
- Learn to be assertive with others. Being assertive means standing up for yourself and nicely letting the other person know what you think and how you feel. Let the person know that you are uncomfortable doing what they are asking.
- Understand that it is OK to say "no". Practice saying "no" in different scenarios so that you can be comfortable saying it when you really need to. Sometimes you might have to say "no" more than once before the other person stops pressuring you. Remember to stand firm in your decision and not give in. Someone who really cares about you will not pressure you to do anything that makes you feel uncomfortable.
- Suggest a positive alternative that you all would be able to do that wouldn't get anyone in trouble or put them in danger. For instance, you could say, "Instead of skipping school today, let's just make plans to go to the movies on Saturday night!"
