Teaching Peace, Transforming Conflict? Anika May,2008 Community-based Ecotourism as a Sustainable Development Option Nina Himberg,2008 This book discusses the development of community ecotourism in south eastern Kenya The indigenous mountain rain forests of the Taita Hills are rich in biodiversity but severely degraded Alternative livelihoods are needed among the Taita people and community ecotourism offers one potential source of income while reviving the fading cultural traditions and indigenous knowledge about forest use This case study combines anthropocentric and bio centric premises to examine existing and potential resources and their hindrances The arguments are couched around factors that are essential to the viability of the local ecosystems and communities The nexus of these factors are then discussed within the context of the external political social and economic forces impacting upon the sustainable development of the area Using an ecotourism potentiality analysis the case study focuses upon three forest areas and one village The book will be especially useful to professionals in nature conservation and tourism fields as well as for development agencies NGOs academic institutions and local and regional site developers Managing Humanitarian Relief Eric James,2008 Responding Effectively to humanitarian disasters is far from straightforward and relief workers often find themselves in a world of uncoordinated highly competitive agencies working with cross cutting purposes Managing Humanitarian Relief is aimed at relief workers charged with putting together a programme of action to help people in extreme crisis It provides humanitarian relief managers with a single comprehensive reference for all the management issues they are likely to encounter in the field The book is organized in two parts First it provides an outline of different relief programming sectors food and nutrition health water and sanitations and shelter Second it presents 20 separate management topics that are essential for overseeing programmes It s easy to use format includes checklists tables diagrams sample forms and no nonsense tips from practitioners to help readers in emergency situations Managing Heritage and Cultural Tourism Resources Dallen J. Timothy,2007 Part of a three volume reference series which provides an authoritative and comprehensive set of volumes collecting together the most influential articles and papers on tourism heritage and culture This first volume deals primarily with issues of conservation interpretation impacts of tourism and the management of those impacts Narrative Inquiry ,2007 An Introductory Guide to EC Competition Law and Practice Valentine Korah,1994 Measuring Vulnerability to Natural Hazards Jörn Birkmann,UNU-EHS Expert Working Group on Measuring Vulnerability,2013 Climate change adaptation building resilience and vulnerability and risk reduction are noble words but do we really know what is meant by these terms and how to assess their respective progress This book seeks to address these questions The world has recently experienced disasters of a magnitude rarely seen before the cascading disaster in Japan the earthquake in Haiti and floods in Pakistan and Australia are a few prominent examples These major disasters underline the fact that many communities and world regions are still vulnerable to extreme events and natural hazards Additionally creeping changes such as sea level rise are emerging pressures in the context of climate change These changes are very likely to seriously affect livelihoods in many regions The dynamic and complex interaction between vulnerable communities and climate and non climate related sudden onset and creeping hazards will most likely increase the risk of crises and disasters in the future Following the popularity of the first edition this volume has been completely revised and fully updated This new edition includes the dimension of adaptation to climate change and new risks resulting from climate change It combines practical examples from Africa Asia the Americas and Europe with theoretical and conceptual frameworks It is key reading for all those interested in improving risk reduction and adaptation strategies to extreme events and gradual changes in the context of climate change and natural hazards Publisher s description IDS Bulletin ,2007 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 Anatolia ,2007 A Guide to Careers in Community Development Paul Brophy,Alice Shabecoff,2001 A Guide to Careers in Community Development is an essential reference for anyone interested in working in the community development field including graduate and undergraduate students Arbeitsmigration Thomas Geisen,2005 The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute ,2004 Articles on all aspects of anthropology
