Between Two Horizons:

Between Two Horizons Joel B. Green, Max Turner, 2000 This book constructively explores the question What effects should an interest in theology produce in the reading of Scripture Since the onset of historical consciousness in biblical studies over two centuries ago the work of biblical exegetes and systematic theologians have largely followed two paths In this book nine prominent scholars work to bridge the longstanding gap between biblical studies and theology by concentrating on the nature of a biblical hermeneutics approach to doing theology The range of concerns presented by these scholars seeks to reintegrate biblical exegesis with contemporary theology in the service of the church

Hunt, 2019-09-27 Cornelius Van Til's Doctrine of God and Its Relevance for Contemporary Hermeneutics seeks to answer the question What does Van Til have to do with hermeneutics It is argued that some of the most relevant concerns in the field of contemporary hermeneutics are similar to those addressed by Van Til in the area of apologetics Van Til's approach involved a self-conscious consistency between method and theology proper in order to reason according to the Christian worldview found in Scripture Just as one's apologetic method should be consistent with the theology revealed in the Bible so also should one's hermeneutic This work not only argues that Van Til has an important place in the hermeneutical discussion but also demonstrates his place in terms of the main contours in his doctrine of God In doing so certain influences on evangelical hermeneutics are considered according to consistency with theology proper Lastly a Van Tillian hermeneutic is applied to the often debated issue concerning the New Testament use of the Old Testament A Textbook of Petroleum Production Engineering Lester Charles Uren, 1924 Report of the State Board of Geological Survey for the Year ... Michigan.
