Discourse Studies A Multidisciplinary Introduction:

Discourse Studies Teun A Van Dijk, 1997-05-07 This two volume set is the first international text to provide a comprehensive introduction to discourse studies the analysis of the linguistic social cultural and cognitive properties of text and talk in their various contexts Designed specifically for students and other newcomers to this fascinating new cross discipline these volumes offer a wealth of theoretical descriptive and methodological information The contributors world renowned scholars from many countries and cultures have written in an accessible pedagogical style that combines useful literature reviews and clear illustrations of analysis with the originality of their own theoretical perspectives These volumes are intended for use

Discourse as Social Interaction Teun A Van Dijk, Teun A. van Dijk, 1997-05-06 The second volume of this introduction to discourse studies focuses on the fundamental interactional social political and cultural functions of text and talk and shows that discourse is not merely form and meaning but also action

Discourse Studies Dijk, Teun Adrianus van Dijk, Discourse Studies Teun Adrianus van Dijk, 1997 Discourse Studies: a Multidisciplinary Introduction Vol 1 a teun, 1997 Discourse as social interaction Teun A. van Dijk, 1997

Methods in Cognitive Linguistics Monica Gonzalez-Marquez, 2007 Methods in Cognitive Linguistics is an introduction to empirical methodology for language researchers Intended as a handbook to exploring the empirical dimension of the theoretical questions raised by Cognitive Linguistics the volume presents guidelines for employing methods from a variety of intersecting disciplines laying out different ways of gathering empirical evidence The book is divided into five sections Methods and Motivations provides the reader with the preliminary background in scientific methodology and statistics The sections on Corpus and Discourse Analysis and Sign Language and Gesture describe different ways of investigating usage data Behavioral Research describes methods for exploring mental representation simulation semantics child language development and the relationships between space and language and eye movements and cognition Lastly Neural Approaches introduces the reader to ERP research and to the computational modeling of language

Handbook of Interpersonal Communication Mark L. Knapp, John A. Daly, 2002-10 The Third Edition of the Handbook of Interpersonal Communication includes eight new chapters and eleven revised from the second edition Following an introductory chapter the volume is organized into four parts covering perspectives on inquiry in interpersonal communication fundamental units of interpersonal communication processes and functions and interpersonal contexts Features include Each chapter reviews and updates research in its respective area Part II examines methodological issues in the field Includes articles by top scholars in the field of Interpersonal Communication

Discourse as Structure and Process Teun A. van Dijk, 1997 What are the structures of discourse and what are the functions of these structures in the communicative context This volume explains how and why discourse is organized at various levels The multidisciplinary contributions illustrate that discourse analysis goes far beyond the linguistic answer of designing grammars and goes hand in hand with the study of their uses and functions in the social context Comprehensive and accessible the volume covers a huge variety of discourse genres including written and spoken and storytelling and argumentation The chapters also illustrate the necessity to examine the mental processes of the language users How do people go about producing understanding and remembering text or talk The book stresses that both discourse and its mental processing have a social basis and can only be fully understood in relation to social interaction The Battling Beasts, 1946

Migration and the Construction of National Identity in Spain Désirée Kleiner-Liebau, 2009 Public debate about immigrant integration has often led to a heightened awareness or even a collective redefinition of identity Such processes are studied through the unique example of Spain Framing the Threat Imke Köhler, 2019-03-04 There is great power in the use of words words create most of what we consider to be real and true Framing our words and narratives is thus a tool of power but a power that also comes with limitations This intriguing issue is the topic of Framing the Threat an investigation of the relationship between language and security and of how discourse creates the scope of possibility for political action In particular the book scrutinizes and compares the security narratives of the former US presidents George W Bush and Barack Obama It shows how their framings of identity i e of the American self and the enemy other facilitated a certain construction of threat that shaped the presidents detention and interrogation policies By defining what was necessary in the name of national security Bush s narrative justified the operation of the detention center at Guantanamo Bay and rendered the mistreatment of detainees possible a situation that would have otherwise been illegal Bush s framings therefore enabled legal limits to be pushed and made the violation of rules appear legitimate Obama in contrast constructed a threat scenario that required an end to rule violations and the closure of Guantanamo for security reasons According to this narrative a return to the rule of law was imperative if the American people were to be kept safe However Obama s framing was continually challenged and it was never able to dominate public discourse Consequently Framing the Threat argues Obama was unable to implement the policy changes he had announced Discourse Studies: Discourse as structure and process Teun A.

van Dijk, 1997 What are the structures of discourse and what are the functions of these structures in the communicative context This volume explains how and why discourse is organized at various levels The multidisciplinary contributions illustrate that discourse analysis goes far beyond the linguistic answer of designing grammars and goes hand in hand with the study of their uses and functions in the social context Comprehensive and accessible the volume covers a huge variety of discourse genres including written and spoken and storytelling and argumentation The chapters also illustrate the necessity to examine the mental processes of the language users How do people go about producing understanding and remembering text or talk Political Influence of the Media in Developing Countries Mukhongo, Lynete Lusike, Macharia, Juliet Wambui, 2016-01-18 The media plays an intricate role in the political economy of developing nations as it conveys the social issues and impacts of a government s legislation and policy However information is often miscommunicated or biased in emergent economies as media owners often tailor news and advertisements to promote their own agendas rather than meet the needs of citizens Political Influence of the Media in Developing Countries analyzes the use and structure of media in political forums in developing nations Featuring research on the effects of the media on news consumption and the professional and ethical difficulties journalists and editors face in the dissemination of political messages this publication is an essential reference source for policy makers academicians politicians students and researchers interested in the adoption of various media formats used to promote the political environment and civic engagement within developing countries

Conventional and Original Metaphors in French Autobiography Madalina Akli,2009 This book studies three autobiographies each of which is at least partially devoid of chronological structure Sartre s The Words Perek s W or The Memory of Childhood and Sarraute s Childhood Calendar based order traditionally associated with autobiography fails to provide the coherence the readers expect Hence readers must create a sense of coherence at another level by using their conceptual resources Conventional and Original Metaphors in French Autobiography reveals that in these literary texts coherence is maintained based on the exploitation of conventional metaphors taken from everyday language which the autobiographers transform in a creative yet familiar manner These common metaphors offer guidance to readers and establish coherence between the shared life experiences of reader and autobiographer In the course of reading the autobiographers and the readers life experiences overlap through familiar metaphors which serve as organizational devices in writing and as guiding principles in reading

Introducing Interpreting Studies Franz Pöchhacker,2004 This book introduces students researchers and practitioners to the fast developing discipline of Interpreting Studies

Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2001

Discourse Studies in Composition Ellen L. Barton,Gail Stygall,2002 This volume aims to synthesize and situate the systematic study of discourse explicitly in the field of composition Each chapter follows a common tri partite structure a description of an approach to discourse analysis a case study using that approach and a discussion of its value

Discourse and Power Teun A van Dijk,2008-06 Teun van Dijk is one of the founders of Critical Discourse Studies and this collection brings together some of his most important writing framed by new introductory material He examines the role of discourse in the reproduction of power and domination in society and the ways in which media and political elites control access to public discourse

Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,1999 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers
