

A serene sunset scene over a body of water. The sun is a bright, glowing orb in the upper right, casting a shimmering path of light across the water's surface. The sky is filled with soft, wispy clouds, some of which are illuminated from below by the sun. In the foreground, the dark silhouettes of reeds or tall grasses are visible, framing the bottom and right sides of the image. The text "Good Evening!" is written in a large, elegant, cursive script across the middle of the image, with a slight glow and shadow effect.

cozy existence is about to face a serious shake up His sister Bel an aspiring actress and hopeless romantic has brought to Amaurot her most recent and to Charles s mind most ill advised boyfriend Frank is hulking and round and resembles nothing so much as a large dresser probably a Swedish one He bets on greyhounds and talks endlessly of brawls and pubs in an accent that brings tears to Charles s eyes And most suspiciously his entrance into the Hythlodays lives just happens to coincide with the disappearance of an ever increasing number of household antiques and baubles Soon Charles and Bel discover that missing heirlooms are the least of their worries they are simply not as rich as they have always believed With the family fortune teetering in the balance Charles must do something he swore he would never do get a job Booted into the mean streets of Dublin he is as unprepared for real life as Frank would be for a cotillion And it turns out that real life is a tad unprepared for Charles as well
