About the Expert: Therese Barleta has been drawing for over 20 years. Ever since the time she can hold a pencil, she has been drawing and has been improving this skill in realistic drawing continuously. Growing up, art has always been her passion, and while still studying in grade school, she always dreamed of pursuing a career in the arts. While in school, she accepted arts commissions and eventually ended up with landing an illustrator position for a storyboard company as her first job. The company she worked for has given illustrating services for U.S. and U.K.-based companies such as Wendy's, Ford Motors, and Yoplait, to name a few. During Therese Barleta's childhood, years her mother always gave her a pencil and a stack of papers to draw on which she would doodle various images on As the doodles developed into recognizable drawings of animals and people her family discovered that she had a knack for drawing and they encouraged her to keep practicing this skill Comic books such as Archie Marvel and eventually Manga nurtured her love for drawing and then later developed her skill for drawing realistically when Interactive Arts Services employed her as a storyboard penciller The job required constant drawing of different people of different ages sexes and races depicting various everyday situations and this constant practice sharpened her skill in realistic drawing HowExpert publishes quick how to guides on all topics from A to Z by everyday experts Animals Ailin Chambers,2014-08-01 Drawing animals can be hard From body shape to details like teeth and claws it s tough to make a drawing look distinctly like the animal you want it to Clear step by step instructions take all the guesswork out of drawing animals Readers can take on drawing a grinning shark suspicious snake cute panda and more An introduction to the needed equipment and extra tips along the way help readers draw in a simple cartoon style A colorful layout and final drawing example encourage readers to finish their project with flair
