The Made-Up Self Carl H. Klaus, 2010-04-15 In this first book length study of the personal essay Carl Klaus unpacks the writer's made up self and the manifold ways in which a wide range of essayists and essays have brought it to life By reconceiving the most fundamental aspect of the personal essay the I of the essayist Klaus demonstrates that this seemingly uncontrived form of writing is inherently problematic not wilfully devious but bordering upon the world of fiction He develops this key idea by explaining how structure style and voice determine the nature of a persona and our perception

Women and Nazis Wendy Adele-Marie Sarti,2011 War atrocities cannot be segregated by gender and gender cannot be ignored when analyzing the crimes that culminated in the Third Reich s attempt to eradicate European Jewry and other suspect nationalities and ethnic groups such as the Roma Despite the Nazis masculine oriented policies towards Aryan German women many women sought ways to become involved in Hitler s party and government Professor Sarti s remarkable research discusses the women who not only agreed with the Nazi Weltanschauung but took an active part in mass genocide Scholarship has tended to fundamentally overlook or dismiss the actions of this group Sarti brings then to the fore of her remarkable investigation into their numbers and their influence Professor Sarti discusses the broad narrative of women as perpetrators no as unwilling accomplices of brutal genocidal acts She also studies a number of individuals such as the nineteen in the Belsen trial of 1945 and others brought to book by the German authorities in postwar West Germany In reality far fewer women were even processed for trial than men and this in the face of research that points to a much higher number of women guards and supervisors than the Allied forces acknowledged This work based on primary sources is sure to be of great interest to students of the Holocaust genocide as a modern phenomena as well as scholars involved in women and gender studies
