Dodnash Priory Charters:

Dodnash Priory Charters Christopher Harper-Bill, 1998 The history of Dodnash Priory one of numerous Augustinian priories founded in East Anglia in the twelfth and early thirteenth centuries has hitherto been totally obscure The two hundred original charters edited here now show that it was founded by Wimer the chaplain sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk and a prominent servant of Henry II and that although always small it played a disproportionately large part in the economic and social life of south east Suffolk for the next three centuries The early charters include the first known references to Flatford Mill at East Bergholt later documents relate to serious flooding at the end of the thirteenth century and soon thereafter to the leasing of estates in order to adapt to new economic conditions As always the charters provide much information about local lay society as well as the canons themselves CHRISTOPHER HARPER BILL is Professor of English History at the University of East Anglia Dating Undated Medieval Charters Michael Gervers, 2002 Many of the millions of medieval charters surviving in European archives and repositories were written without any reference to a date of issue The proliferation of undated charters in England and Normandy indicates that the custom was especially peculiar to lands under Norman rule but charters issued by major religious houses are often also undated The DEEDS Project at the University of Toronto has developed a computerised methodology for dating charters relying on analysis of vocabulary syntax and formulae In this volume an international group of scholars concerned with the problem of charter chronology consider the potential of the computerised methodology compared to other more traditional methods of dating such as identification of names changing in wording and address and handwriting Discussion also touches on regional differences in the production use and distribution of charters and on ways both manual and mechanical to date and analyse the content of large numbers of them MICHAEL GERVERS is Director of the DEEDS Project at the University of Toronto Canada Contributors MICHAEL GERVERS RODOLFO FIALLOS MARJORIE CHIBNALL V RONIQUE GAZEAU BENOIT MICHEL TOCK NICHOLAS VINCENT GEORGES DECLERCQ ZSOLT HUNYADIR ATTILA ZSOLDOS MARIA HILLEBRANDT TREVOR CHALMERS LAZSLO VESZPRMI P D A HARVEY ANDRAS GRYNÆUS JOZSEF PALFY Monasticon Anglicanum : A History Of The Abbies And Other Monasteries, Hospitals, Frieries, And Cathedral And Collegiate Churches, With Their Dependencies, In England and Wales William Dugdale, 1846 Monasticon Anglicanum...a History of the Abbies and Other Monasteries...and Cathedral and Collegiate Churches...in England and Wales William Dugdale, 1846 The Bigod Earls of Norfolk in the Thirteenth Century Marc Morris, 2005 Study of one of the most influential aristocratic families of medieval England The Bigods were one of the most powerful and important families in thirteenth century England They are chiefly remembered for their dramatic interventions in high politics Roger III Bigod c 1209 70 famously led the march on Westminster Hall in 1258 against Henry III while Roger IV Bigod 1245 1306 confronted Edward I in 1297 in similar fashion This book is the first full scale study of these two earls and explores in depth the reasons that led each of them to take the extreme step of confronting his king It is only in part however a political study In seeking to understand the motives that lay behind their public actions the book scrutinizes the earls private affairs It establishes for the first time the precise extent of their landed estate the size of their incomes and the membership and quality of their affinities It also examines their relationships with friends and relatives their building works and even their personalities Extensive use is made throughout of unpublished manuscript sources in particular the hundreds of ministers accounts that have survived from the administration of Roger IV Bigod and the charters given by both earls which are calendared and translated in an appendix
