This book tells the story of the German Democratic Republic from the inside out, using the lens of generational change to deconstruct an intriguing array of social identities that had little to do with the official GDR version. Authoritarian rulers regularly sought to impose on their citizens. The author compares the identities of five societal subgroups: GDR writers and intellectuals, pastors and dissidents, women, youth, and working class men, exploring the policies defining their lives and status before, during, and after the 1989 Wende, as well as the diverging exit, voice, and loyalty dilemmas encountered by each. The dialectical components treated in this work center on the extent to which eastern identities were lost, found, and reconfigured across three generations: from 1949 to 1989, from 1990 to 2005, then up to 2020. It explores how the existence of a separate East German state and the socialization processes imposed on each subculture has not only complicated the search for national unity since 1990 but also perhaps more controversially, invoked new challenges directly related to ongoing East-West structural disparities since unification and the treatment of eastern Germans by often more privileged western Germans. Project Sealab Report United States. Land Surveyors come across many odd and interesting circumstances as they research and define property boundaries within the land tenure system of Nova Scotia. Over the course of time, they have accumulated a myriad of reminiscences and anecdotes of unique experiences, distinctive characters, historical accounts, bizarre deeds, descriptions, involved technical surveys, out-of-the-way locations, differing opinions, etc. Many are the stories that could be told when an opportunity presents itself at a gathering of land surveyors. This anthology is just a small collection of contributed articles and tales, all with a connection to surveyors and surveying, gathered from the experiences of the authors. The Era Magazine, 1903. Dwell, 2006. America Buys, 1980. Country Life Illustrated, 1908. The Rise of South Africa George Cory, 1926. Punch Henry Mayhew, Mark Lemon, Tom Taylor, Shirley Brooks, Francis Cowley Burnand, Owen Seaman, 1974-07. Off-road High-performance Handbook Michael Bargo, 1988. The Rise of South Africa: 1838-1846 George Cory, 1926. The Parliamentary Debates (official Report).
