Culture Matters: How Values Shape Human Progress Lawrence E. Harrison, Samuel P. Huntington, 2000-05-18 Prominent scholars and journalists ask Why are some countries able to accomplish political freedom and a decent standard of living and others not Culture : Matters : how Values Shape Human Progress Lawrence E. Harrison, 2000 Culture Matters [electronic Resource] : how Values Shape Human Progress : Presentation and Discussion with Lawrence E. Harrison Canadian Centre for Foreign Policy Development, 2000 Handbook of Research on Asian Business Henry Wai-Chung Yeung, 2007 This volume is excellent Students who are interested in Asian business should read it and will find the comprehensive bibliography offered by the different contributors very helpful In light of the recent global financial crises it is time to re examine the Asian miracles as well as the Western models of business organizations and regulations This volume offers great insights not just on Asian business but also on Western economies and business It is also time to adopt an integrative approach recommended by Yeung through comparative research of businesses and economies in different institutions and cultures Yifei Sun Economic Geography An absolute must have for college library reference shelves filled cover to cover with keen analyses that any businessperson seeking to make inroads in an Asian market needs to study at length Midwest Book Review This book serves as an important guide to the many fascinating research questions about Asian business waiting to be addressed The study of Asian business has reached equality in importance to the study of business in Europe and North America Researchers who study any of these regions have an incentive to follow the study of business in the other regions if for no other reason than that many global firms from each region operate in all regions now Nonetheless the more important reason for knowledge transfer among researchers of each region is that these exchanges can only advance everyone s research Henry Yeung and the contributors are to be thanked for setting out a rich agenda for research on Asian business that will elevate this study to equality with research elsewhere in the world Eurasian Geography and Economics This book is extremely comprehensive and well researched It will be of particular interest to scholars in the fields of international business development studies economic geography regional studies as well as international and national policymakers Science Technology Society The rise of Asia as an important region for global business has been widely recognized as one of the most significant economic phenomena in the new millennium This accessible and comprehensive Handbook brings together state of the art reviews of Asian business in an expansive range of areas including business organizations strategic management marketing state business relations business and development business policy issues It is argued that whilst academic studies on Asian business have been in existence for over two decades there is relatively little systematic integration of our knowledge and research on Asian business The contributors drawn from a variety of disciplines within the social sciences aim to redress the balance with their lively cutting edge discussion Serving as a timely overview of more than two decades of scholarly research this Handbook will be an essential resource for academics students and researchers interested in Asian business      Culture, Institutions, and Development Jean-Philippe Platteau, Robert Peccoud, 2010-10-04 This book brings together economists sociologists and anthropologists to discuss the role of culture in economic development addressing such issues as religion family ethnic ties entrepreneurship and poverty      Culture Matters Canadian Centre for Foreign Policy Development, 2000-01-01      Hernando de Soto and Property in a Market Economy Dr D Benjamin Barros, 2013-02-28 Hernando de Soto is one of the world's leading public intellectuals His books The Mystery of Capital and The Other Path have had a tremendous impact on debates about international development but his work also has been controversial One of de Soto's core ideas is that the institution of private property is necessary for the proper functioning of a market economy yet even though many property scholars closely follow de Soto's work his ideas have been neglected in property law scholarship and mature market economies like the United States This new collection seeks to remedy this neglect bringing together a diverse group of scholars to apply de Soto's work to a wide range of contemporary issues in property law and theory The important contribution it makes to debates and controversies in property law as well as in related economic fields will appeal to scholars of both law and economics      The Dynamics of Socio-Economic Development Adam Szirmai, 2005-01-20 Why are poor countries poor and rich countries rich How are wealth and poverty related to changes in nutrition health life expectancy education population growth and politics This modern non technical 2005 introduction to development studies explores the dynamics of socio economic development and stagnation in developing countries Taking a quantitative and comparative approach to contemporary debates within their broader context Szirmai examines historical institutional demographic sociological political and cultural factors Key chapters focus on economic growth technological change industrialisation agricultural development and consider social dimensions such as population growth health and education Each chapter contains comparative statistics on trends from a sample of twenty nine developing countries This rich statistical database allows students to strengthen their understanding of comparative development experiences Assuming no prior knowledge of economics the book is suited for use in inter disciplinary development studies programmes as well as economics courses and will also interest practitioners pursuing careers in developing countries

Second International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Kenneth A. Leithwood, P.

Hallinger, 2012-12-06 The first International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Leithwood et al was published in 1996 and quickly became something of a best seller for reference works within education Such success we suggest was at least partly due to the unprecedented global waves of concern for improving schools launched in the mid 1980's combined with a widespread belief in leadership as the single most powerful contribution to such improvement The roots of this belief can be found in evidence produced by the early effective schools research although there is a romance with leadership as an explanation for success in many non school enterprises as well During the two year period during which this current handbook was being written activity in the realms of school leadership school improvement and leadership development gained further momentum The English government created its new National College of School Leadership and several Asian nations announced new initiatives in leadership selection preparation and development Religion, Nation and Democracy in the South Caucasus Alexander Agadjanian, Ansgar Jödicke, Evert van der Zweerde, 2014-10-10 This book explores developments in the three major societies of the South Caucasus Armenia Azerbaijan and Georgia focusing especially on religion historical traditions national consciousness and political culture and on how these factors interact It outlines how despite close geographical interlacement common historical memories and inherited structures the three countries have deep differences and it discusses how development in all three nations has differed significantly from the countries declared commitments to democratic orientation and European norms and values The book also considers how external factors and international relations continue to impact on the three countries Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall, 2001 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers

Comparative Civilizations Review ,2001 The Culture of Strangers Eric G. Hansen, 2002-02 Far from celebrating cultural diversity this study cautions that the powerful cultural forces which globalization represents are in fact largely incompatible with those which animate primitive and traditional societies Instead it champions a global civility based on institutional commitments focused in reason based communications Development Outreach ,1999 Nationbuilding 101 O. Lee Reed, 2003 IQ and the Wealth of Nations Richard Lynn, Tatu Vanhanen, 2002-02-28 Argues that a significant part of the gap between rich and poor countries is due to differences in national intelligence International Labour Documentation ,2001-07 Michigan Law Review ,2004 Political Liberalization in the Persian Gulf Joshua Teitelbaum, 2009 The Persian or Arab Gulf countries produce about 30 per cent of the planet s oil and keep in the ground around 55 per cent of its crude oil reserves hence the stability of the region s autocratic regimes is vital to the world s economic and political future Yet paradoxically despite its reputation as the most traditional of regions the Persian Gulf holds out great promise to those who support political liberalization But is political liberalization in the region part of an inexorable drive toward democratization or simply a means for autocratic regimes to consolidate and legitimize their rule This book sheds new light on this fascinating trend revealing varying levels of commitment to reform across eight Gulf states as they respond to the challenges of increased wealth and education levels a developing middle class external actors and competing social and political groups The Quest for Humanity in Science and Religion Augustine Shutte, 2006 These essays by a group of South African researchers from diverse cultural backgrounds bring to light a transcendent dimension of our human nature that is often overlooked in the international science and religion debate This is a dimension of our humanity that transcends what the sciences are able to study because it is what enables us to be the creators and judges of science It is also what endows us with the freedom and responsibility of deciding which if any religion to follow These essays bring together insights drawn from both European and African traditions of thought that illuminate this ultimately mysterious dimension of our humanity
