Japanese Destroyer Captain Tameichi Hara, 2011-08-15 This highly regarded war memoir was a best seller in both Japan and the United States during the 1960s and has long been treasured by historians for its insights into the Japanese side of the surface war in the Pacific The author was a survivor of more than one hundred sorties against the Allies and was known throughout Japan as the Unsinkable Captain A hero to his countrymen Capt Hara exemplified the best in Japanese surface commanders highly skilled he wrote the manual on torpedo warfare hard driving and aggressive Moreover he maintained a code of honor worthy of his samurai grandfather and as readers of this book have come to appreciate he was as free with praise for American courage and resourcefulness as he was critical of himself and his senior commanders

Destroyer Captain James Stavridis, 2014-09-15 This memoir of James Stavridis two years in command of the destroyer USS Barry reveals the human side of what it is like to be in charge of a warship for the first time and in the midst of international crisis From Haiti to the Balkans to the Arabian Gulf Barry was involved in operations throughout the world during his 1993 1995 tour Drawing on daily journals he kept for the entire period the author reveals the complex nature of those deployments in a real time context and describes life on board the Barry and liberty ashore for sailors and officers alike With all the joy doubt self examination hope and fear of a first command he offers an honest examination of his experience from the bridge to help readers grasp the true nature of command at sea. The window he provides into the personal lives of the crew illuminates not only their hard work in a ship that spent more than 70 percent of its time underway but also the sacrifices of their families ashore. Stavridis credits his able crew for the many awards the Barry won while he was captain, including the Battenberg Cup for top ship in the Atlantic Fleet. Naval aficionados who like seagoing fiction will be attracted to the book, as will those fascinated by life at sea. Officers from all the services, especially surface warfare naval officers aspiring to command, will find these lessons of a first command by one of the Navy's most respected admirals both entertaining and instructive.

Japanese Destroyer Captain. [By Tameichi Hara. Edited by Fred Saito and Roger Pineau. With Plates.]. Tameichi Hara, 1961. The great naval battles of the Pacific are looked at through the eyes of a Japanese.

Dark Waters, Starry Skies Jeffrey Cox, 2023-03-02. Esteemed Pacific War historian Jeffrey Cox has produced a fast-paced and absorbing read of the crucial New Georgia phase of the Guadalcanal-Solomons Campaign during the Pacific War. Thousands of miles from friendly ports, the US Navy had finally managed to complete the capture of Guadalcanal from the Japanese in early 1943. Now the Allies sought to keep the offensive momentum won at such a high cost. Determined not to repeat their mistakes at Guadalcanal, the Allies nonetheless faltered in their continuing efforts to roll back the Japanese land, air, and naval forces. Dark Waters, Starry Skies is an engrossing history which weaves together strategy and tactics with a blow-by-blow account of every battle at a vital point in the Pacific War that has not been analyzed in this level of detail before. Using first-hand accounts from both sides, this book vividly recreates all the terror and drama of the nighttime naval battles during this phase of the Solomons campaign and the ferocious firestorm many Marines faced as they disembarked from their landing craft. The reader is transported to the bridge to stand alongside Admiral Walden Ainsworth as he sails to stop another Japanese reinforcement convoy for New Georgia and vividly feels the fear of an 18-year-old Marine as he fights for survival against a weakened but still determined enemy.

Destroyer Captain Roger Hill, 1975-01-01. Devil's Fire, Southern Cross Jeffrey Cox, 2025-11-20. A fast-paced and absorbing read of the final months of the crucial Guadalcanal-Solomons campaign during the Pacific War by esteemed World War II historian Jeffrey Cox.
