Brookes, 2002 On any given day more than four million people around the world take to the air on one of 38 000 flights operated daily by the airlines The reassuring news is that the fatal accident rate per million flights for large aircraft operations is now about half what it was 10 years ago It is therefore 20 times safer to get airborne In a commercial airliner than it is to drive to the airport in the first place More people die annually from falling down the stairs than they do from fatal air crashes None the less aircraft accidents do occur and in the sheer scale of the horror and devastation wrought it is sometimes hard to bring these statistics into focus Destination Disaster is Andrew Brookes latest investigation into the causes and effects of aircraft disasters It is a responsible and detailed analysis of some of the most noteworthy of recent aircraft accidents The past few years have been overshadowed by a number of major disasters some accidental others deliberate and the book examines in detail the factors behind these various events Among significant disasters covered are the loss of the Air France Concorde in Paris in 2000 the crash of golfer Payne Stewart's Learjet in 1999 and the momentous events of 11 September 2001 Deliberately examined in a non controversial and objective way the accidents and disasters recorded in Destination Disaster paradoxically emphasise just how safe contemporary flight is However as in all things there remains an element of risk and the book is a fascinating examination of the issues of safety raised in contemporary aviation Destination Disaster Paul Eddy, Elaine Potter, Bruce Page, 1978-02-01 Titanic, Destination Disaster John P. Eaton, Charles A. Haas, 1996 Clears up misconceptions about the sinking of the Titanic describes the ship's construction and recounts the discovery of the ship's wreckage Destination Adam Grant, Suzanne McCabe, 2002 Destination Marketing Steven Pike, 2020-10-19 Destination Marketing offers the reader an integrated and comprehensive overview of the key challenges and constraints facing destination marketing organisations DMOs and how destination marketing can be planned implemented and evaluated to achieve successful destination competitiveness This new third edition has been revised and updated to include 27 new and updated case studies including destinations such as Sri Lanka Barbados the UAE and crucially relevant topics such as the Australian bushfires and the threat of COVID 19 Brand new pedagogical features such as in chapter class activities key term definitions and highlighted critical points New content on cross sector consortia marketing for meetings and events social media influencer marketing the role of technology resource consumption and climate change creativity and innovation in developing destination branding experiential destination marketing and the influence of culture and sustainability on destination marketing Links to free access of the author's journal articles on destination marketing Updated additional online resources for lecturers and students including PowerPoint slides quizzes and discussion questions It is written in an engaging style and applies theory to a range of tourism destinations at the consumer business national and international level by using topical examples Destination Disaster Paul Eddy, 1976 Destination Disaster Jan Frazier, 2009-09-01 Destination
